Virtual Educational Therapy Marion E. Marshall, 2022-06-20

Virtual Educational Therapy presents a board certified educational therapist's year long case study of clinical supports and advocacy for a student with learning disabilities who is attending school remotely during the COVID 19 pandemic. With online and blended learning now the norm in K 12 education, educational therapists need new models of intervention, treatment, and relationship building for their child age clients. This book offers detailed single case research focused on a middle school student who is learning virtually while challenged with ADHD as well as visual and verbal memory issues but who is nonetheless found ineligible for special education services. Across eight chapters, author and renowned educational therapist Marion E. Marshall describes the neuropsychological principles, research based techniques, personal interactions, clinical approaches, and advocacy efforts that led to a vulnerable student's significant gains in academic skills and outcomes.

Calendar University of Melbourne, 1908      In Equity, 1855      Hobbema and Heidegger Rivca Gordon, Hayim Gordon, 2008 This book shows how the beautiful landscape paintings of Meindert Hobbema, a seventeenth century painter of the Dutch Golden Age, are in accord with the thought of Martin Heidegger, a twentieth century philosopher on beauty and truth. Since little is known about Hobbema's life, this work concentrates on ideas that are central to Heidegger's philosophy of art and beauty and the way these ideas are attuned to Hobbema's landscapes. Heidegger holds that the beauty of a great work of art calls out from that work and is firmly linked to the disclosure of hidden truths concerning essences of beings. This book illustrates in detail that beauty and such truths indeed call out from Hobbema's paintings.

Voices on the Margins Yenda Prado, Mark Warschauer, 2024-05-14 A rich view of inclusive education at the intersection of language, literacy, and technology, drawing on case study research in a diverse full inclusion US school before, during, and after the COVID 19 pandemic. Despite advancing efforts at integration, the segregation of students with disabilities from their nondisabled peers persists. In the United States, 34 percent of all students with disabilities spend at least 20 percent of their instructional time in segregated classrooms. For students with intellectual or multiple disabilities, segregated placement soars to 80 percent. In Voices on the Margins, Yenda Prado and Mark Warschauer provide an ethnography of an extraordinary full inclusion public charter school in the western United States, Future Visions Academy. And they ask: What does it mean to be inclusive in today's schools with their increasingly pervasive use of digital technologies? Voices on the Margins examines the ways digital technologies support inclusion and language and literacy practices for culturally and linguistically diverse children with and without disabilities. A wide range of qualitative data collected in the case study illuminates three central themes: 1) the kinds of social organization that allow a fully inclusive environment for children with disabilities to thrive; 2) the ways that digital technologies can be used to help students express their voice and agency while developing language and literacy skills; and 3) the ways that digital technologies can be used to foster stronger networks and connections between students, teachers, staff, and parents.

Victims Anonymous Angela R. Hester, 2014-11-11 Many people feel so overwhelmed by their past that they become victims of that past. This is no way to live. In Victims Anonymous, Do Not Allow your Past to Victimize You, author

Angela Hester provides advice and encouragement for coming to terms with the past in order to live fully in the present and succeed in the future Drawing from her own life experiences Hester delivers empowerment to make amends with the past in order to realize the success you can have in the future by transforming the negative you into a positive and successful new you Victims Anonymous Do Not Allow your Past to Victimize You eliminates the fictitious factors that lead you to believe achieving something great is unthinkable because of where you have come from and what you have been through Through the use of reflective exercises and anecdotes from others Victims Anonymous Do Not Allow your Past to Victimize You instills trust that if you work hard to overcome obstacles whether in the past or present that achievement is remarkable The past is labeled just that because it describes events that have already taken place The beauty of your future is that you can dictate the outcome if you do not let your past rule your future

Reluctant Modernists Peter Edgerly Firchow, 2002 The essays collected here deal with modernist writers who on the whole felt reluctant about their modernist status because they believed that it was just as important to look backward as it was to look forward Indeed for most of them looking backward was more important because it was only through the past that one could understand one's proper place in the present and in the future That is why in Huxley's Brave New World it is the rejection of the past in the future and by implication in the present that makes its satire so penetrating Modernism in other words means for these writers not a radical break with the past but a continuing search for what still connects them and us vitally with it Peter Firchow Professor of English at the University of Minnesota is the author of several books on modern and modernist literary subjects including books on Huxley Conrad and Auden The publication of some of his hitherto uncollected essays in this volume is intended to honor
