

Ramble Fish Book Reviews

The following questions are designed to help you generate and focus your ideas when writing a book review. You won't need to answer all of these questions for your paper, but many of the answers will help you discover information and focus your thinking.

What questions

- What are you reviewing? What is it about? What's the plot?
- What's the theme?
- What is the author's purpose?
- What genre or classification does it fit?
- What is the tone? What is the point of view? What's the mood?

Where and When questions

- When was this done? Or when does the action take place?
- Where was this done? Or where does the action take place?

Who questions

- Who wrote it? What else have they done?
- Who are the main characters?
- Who's the intended audience?
- Who has said what about this? Why?

How questions

- How does it convey its main point, mood, or theme? How do audiences react to it?
- How well does it fulfill its purpose?

Evaluation questions

- Did I like this in general? Why?
- Did I agree with the main theme/purpose? Why or why not?
- What specifically did I like/dislike? Why?
- Did the author do a good job? Why or why not?
- How could it be improved? Why would particular changes help?

After you have answered these questions, begin selecting and organizing the information that you'll include in your paper. Once you've done the prewriting, you're ready to think about the requirements and structure of a review.
