Dear Name of Head of Admission Committee:

I am very happy to announce that I will be providing full financial support for my nephew Name during his course at university starting on [Date].

The cost of tuition is about $10,000 per semester so it's important we're able to keep this up! My bank statement from Bank shows how much money has been set aside each month until graduation in two-year's time which should enough given our current economic climate

I hope you'll agree with me when we say: "deposited into an account"

Sincerely,

Community Networks and Cultural Practices in Twentieth-Century Romania Mária Szikszai,2023-06-12 Community Networks and Cultural Practices in Twentieth Century Romania Paper Based Cultures in the Writings of a Catholic Priest presents an anthropological interpretation of 2 400 documents left behind by a Hungarianized Swabian Catholic priest living in Romania during one of the Eastern European dictatorships of the twentieth century This book addresses what the pre digital paper based culture was like in Eastern Europe from the point of view of the protagonist a Catholic priest who lived in a predominantly Orthodox country The author calls the twentieth century the era of the typewriter M ria Szikszai s questions refer to both the epoch and the micro universe of these people What was the world like in which the protagonist and the other people he was in contact with lived How did they live their daily lives How did they make important decisions What pains hopes and joys did they have What did they have to say and what were they silent about This volume presents an anthropological incursion into the life of an Eastern European man who lived almost throughout the twentieth century during which time he tried to document the era he was living in

Letters, Kinship, and Social Mobility in Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan,2023-08-15 In 2003 Olufemi Vaughan received from his ninety five year old father Abiodun a trove of more than 3 000 letters written by four generations of his family in Ibadan Nigeria between 1926 to 1994 The men and women who wrote these letters had emerged from the religious social and educational institutions established by the Church Missionary Society the preeminent Anglican mission in the Atlantic Nigerian region following the imposition of British colonial rule Abiodun recruited to be a civil servant in the colonial administration became the patriarch of a prominent family with historical roots in both West Africa and the Americas his family was the subject of articles in Ebony and Jet as well as in acclaimed histories Reading deeply in these letters Olufemi realized he had a unique set of sources that could be used to illuminate everyday life for this important segment of Nigerian society Letter writing was a dominant form of communication for western educated elites in colonial Africa especially in Nigeria Exposure and an altruistic sense of nationalism were among the factors that led people to begin exchanging letters particularly in their interactions with British colonial authorities Through careful textual analysis and broad contextualization Vaughan reconstructs dominant storylines including themes such as people s relationships with colonial authorities and bureaucracy ideas about faith and kinship nationalism and communal development Vaughan brings his prodigious skills as a historian to bear on this wealth of information bringing to life a portrait at once intimate and expansive of a community during a transformative period in African history

Raza Sí, Migra No Jimmy Patiño, 2017-10-18 As immigration from Mexico to the United States grew through the 1970s and 1980s the Border Patrol police and other state agents exerted increasing violence against ethnic Mexicans in San Diego s volatile border region In response many San Diego activists rallied around the leadership of the small scale print shop owner Herman Baca in the Chicano movement to empower Mexican Americans through Chicano self determination The combination of increasing repression and Chicano activism gradually produced a new conception of ethnic and racial community that included both established Mexican Americans and new Mexican immigrants Here Jimmy Pati o narrates the rise of this Chicano Mexicano consciousness and the dawning awareness that Mexican Americans and Mexicans would have to work together to fight border enforcement policies that subjected Latinos of all statuses to legal violence By placing the Chicano and Latino civil rights struggle on explicitly transnational terrain Pati o fundamentally reorients the understanding of the Chicano movement Ultimately Pati o tells the story of how Chicano Mexicano politics articulated an abolitionist position on immigration going beyond the agreed upon assumptions shared by liberals and conservatives alike that deportations are inherent to any solutions to the still burgeoning immigration debate

Bergen,1996-05-21 In our 20 years of campaigning to change the laws in 50 states women often called to report their neglect by local agencies Now with the power given these women by Dr Bergen s excellent definitive documentation neither this issue nor these people can be neglected Laura X National Clearinghouse on Marital and Date Rape Raquel Kennedy Bergen s impressive study challenges us to look seriously at a form of violence that has been largely ignored by researchers and practitioners alike Wife Rape deepens our understanding of the devastating experience of marital rape Further the study illuminates the problems practitioners and activists face as they confront wife rape Bergen s important study promises to reopen the topic of wife rape This book should be read by everyone involved in domestic violence research and intervention Kersti Yll Ph D Department of Sociology and Anthropology Wheaton College Massachusetts Attending to a subject long neglected by research and popular spheres author Raquel Kennedy Bergen addresses the deep pain and humiliation of sexual assault suffered by countless numbers of women at the hands of their partners Wife Rape lends voice to the personal testimonies of survivors and contrasts these stories with interviews of service providers illustrating the lack of validation and insufficient assistance currently available to wife rape survivors Offering insight and hope to survivors and providing critical information to service providers this valuable volume helps readers better understand wife rape and the response of agencies to the problem In addition a special guide to service providers a state law chart and a list of organizations that provide information on rape make this book an important resource Offering an essential check on the reality of Wife Rape this timely and accessibly written volume is excellent reading for researchers practitioners policymakers police officers religious leaders students clients and all those who would like to become better informed about this issue Poverty and Sickness in Modern Europe Andreas Gestrich,Elizabeth Hurren,Steven King,2012-06-28 This book provides a genuinely pan European analysis of pauper narratives focusing on the experiences of the sick poor in England France Germany Ireland Luxembourg Scotland Spain Sweden Switzerland and Wales The contributions highlight the value of pauper narratives for exploring the agency rhetoric and experiences of the poor and sick poor significantly enhancing our understanding of the ways in which national and regional welfare systems operated By foregrounding the particular experiences and strategies of the sick poor this volume helps to establish and understand the central sentiments of the relief system and the core experiences of those under its care What emerges is a demonstration that how a relief system treated its sick poor and how those sick poor were able to navigate the system tells us more about welfare history than analysis of any other group A woman's place? Ciara Meehan,2023-02-28 This book explores representations of the domestic in Irish women s magazines Published in 1960s Ireland during a period of transformation they served as modern manuals for navigating everyday life Traditional themes dating marriage and motherhood dominated But editors also introduced conflicting voices to complicate the narrative Readers were prompted to reimagine their home life and traditional values were carefully subverted The domestic was shown to be a negotiable concept in the coverage of such issues as the body and reproductive rights working wives and equal pay Dominant societal perceptions of women were also challenged through the inclusion of those who were on the margins widows unmarried mothers and never married women This book considers the motivations of editors the role of readers and the influence of advertisers in shaping complex debates about women in society in 1960s Ireland Statement of Information United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,1974 Parenting in England 1760-1830 Joanne Bailey,2012-04-05 The first study of the world of parenting in late Georgian England Based on extensive and wide ranging sources from memoirs and correspondence to fiction advice guides and engravings Bailey uncovers how people from the poor to the rich thought about themselves as parents and remembered their own parents Resources in Education ,2001-04
