Houston Noir (Akashic Noir) Gwendolyn Zepeda, 2019-05-07 The fourth largest city in the US is long overdue to enter the Noir Series arena and does so blazingly There's precious little comfort to be found in any of these Houston neighborhoods most of which are set light years away from the city's notoriously cushy new money culture Houston comes across as a haven of multiculturalism though as in all the 90 plus volumes of Akashic's 15 year old series the vision of the city that emerges isn't likely to jump start tourism for any but the most ghoulishly inclined Kirkus Reviews Brooklyn Noir came first in 2004 and now 15 years later Houston Noir 14 stories of intrigue betrayal and death set from Tanglewood to Third Ward penned by current or former Houston authors goes on sale Houston Chronicle Akashic Books continues its award winning series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir Each book comprises all new stories each one set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the respective city Brand new stories by Tom Abrahams Robert Boswell Sarah Cortez Anton DiSclafani Stephanie Jaye Evans Wanjiku Wa Ngugi Adrienne Perry Pia Pico Reyes Ramirez Icess Fernandez Rojas Sehba Sarwar Leslie Contreras Schwartz Larry Watts and Deborah D E E P Mouton From the introduction by Gwendolyn Zepeda In a 2004 essay Hunter S Thompson described Houston as a cruel crazy town on a filthy river in East Texas with no zoning laws and a culture of sex money and violence It's a shabby sprawling metropolis ruled by brazen women crooked cops and super rich pansexual cowboys who live by the code of the West which can mean just about anything you need it to mean in a pinch For what it's worth that quote is now posted on a banner somewhere downtown and regularly gleefully repeated by our local feature writers Houston is a port city on top of a swamp and yes it has no zoning laws And that means it's culturally diverse internally incongruous and ever changing At any intersection here I might look out my car window and see a horse idly munching St Augustine grass And within spitting distance of that horse I might see a spa that's an obvious brothel a house turned drug den or a swiftly rising bayou that might overtake a car if the rain doesn't let up Overall this collection represents the very worst our city has to offer for residents and visitors alike But it also presents some of our best voices veteran and emerging to any reader lucky enough to pick up this book
