

summer learning

- Summer story brainstorming and novel pages
- Chapters, colored pencils, markers, etc.

- Show the example with your child (be quiet in the car to go to the park or a library). After that we get in the car to head out. Tell your child while they hear the effects to find someone to get out when we're outside then when they hear the effects stop we get back in the car when it was time to go we get back in the car and drive home.
- Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example, then ask your child what they know about the format of comics (such as in comic books or storyboards). Discuss this together (i.e. picture and text).
- Tell the your child that they will be writing about their own summer stories... come back after they will need to draw a picture and tell several things that happened during their story.
- Tell the children that first they need to come up with their summer story (come home your child is out there, of 2-3 ideas for their summer story). Then they can draw a picture of their story.
- Once they have chosen one story come using the size.
