

Sample Interview Questions with Suggested Ways of Answering

Q. Tell me about yourself.

A. This is the dreaded, classic, open-ended interview question and likely to be among the first. It's your chance to introduce your qualifications, good work habits, etc. Keep it mostly work and career related.

Q. Why do you want to leave your current job? (Why did you leave your last job?)

A. Be careful with this. Avoid trashing other employers and making statements like, "I need more money." Instead, make generic statements such as, "It's a career move."

Q. What are your strengths?

A. Point out your positive attributes related to the job.

Q. What are your weaknesses?

A. Everybody has weaknesses, but don't spend too much time on this one and keep it work related. Along with a minor weakness or two, try to point out a couple of weaknesses that the interviewer might see as strengths, such as sometimes being a little too meticulous about the quality of your work. (Avoid saying "I work too hard." It's a predictable, common answer.) For every weakness, offer a strength that compensates for it.

Q. Which adjectives would you use to describe yourself?

A. Answer with positive, work-oriented adjectives, such as conscientious, hard-working, honest and courteous, plus a brief description or example of why each fits you well.

Q. What do you know about our company?

A. To answer this one, research the company before you interview.

Q. Why do you want to work for us?

A. Same as above. Research the company before you interview. Avoid the predictable, such as, "Because it's a great company." Say why you think it's a great company.

Q. Why should I hire you?

A. Point out your positive attributes related to the job, and the good job you've done in the past. Include any compliments you've received from management.

Q. What past accomplishments gave you satisfaction?

A. Briefly describe one to three work projects that made you proud or earned you pats on the back, promotions, raises, etc. Focus more on achievement than reward.

Q. What makes you want to work hard?

A. Naturally, material rewards such as perks, salary and benefits come into play. But again, focus more on achievement and the satisfaction you derive from it.

Q. What type of work environment do you like best?

A. Tailor your answer to the job. For example, if in doing your job you're required to lock the lab doors and work alone, then indicate that you enjoy being a team player when needed, but also

Interview Answers in a Flash Pat Criscito,Dee Funkhouser,2006 The interview is often the most important step in job hunting and solid preparation often spells the difference between a job offer and a friendly good bye handshake. This book each page in the form of a Q A flashcard offers ideal preparation for that big interview. Questions likely to be asked by an interviewer are printed on one side with proven answers printed on the reverse. The book is designed so that pages can be pulled out selected and shuffled according to need and used as flashcards for practice. Interviewers are notorious for asking a wide range of questions and this book covers virtually all of them with 200 Q A cards that fall into a variety of categories. For instance Work and Educations questions: What have you done? Why did you leave your last job? What did you like most about your last job? What did you like least about it? Have you ever been fired? What is your management style and many more. Skills and Competencies questions: What can you do? Describe a challenging work issue you had to face. How do you handle an angry employee and many more. Personality Goals questions: Who are you? What makes you a good team member? Where do you see yourself five years from now and many more. Behavioral Situational questions: Can you tell a story? Tell me about a time when you had to juggle priorities to meet a deadline and many more. Job Fit questions: Are you a match? How would you describe your ideal work environment? What aspects of the job will you like least and many more. Torture Trick questions: Can you take the heat? Why should we hire you for this position? What do you expect your starting salary to be? How do I rate as an interviewer? The reverse side of each card tells why the question is asked presents sample responses and allows space to customize an answer. Here is an unusual and effective job hunting tool that will be valued by job applicants career coaches counselors and college placement offices.
