Evangelicalism and the Church of England in the Twentieth Century Andrew Atherstone, John G. Maiden, 2014

An important contribution to the understanding of twentieth century Anglicanism and evangelicalism This volume makes a considerable contribution to the understanding of twentieth century Anglicanism and evangelicalism It includes an expansive introduction which both engages with recent scholarship and challenges existing narratives The book locates the diverse Anglican evangelical movement in the broader fields of the history of English Christianity and evangelical globalisation Contributors argue that evangelicals often engaged constructively with the wider Church of England long before the 1967 Keele Congress and displayed a greater internal party unity than has previously been supposed Other significant themes include the rise of various neo evangelicalisms charismaticism lay leadership changing conceptions of national identity and the importance of generational shifts The volume also provides an analysis of major organisations conferences and networks including the Keswick Convention Islington Conference and Nationwide Festival of Light ANDREW ATHERSTONE is tutor in history and doctrine and Latimer research fellow at Wycliffe Hall Oxford JOHN MAIDEN is lecturer in the Department of Religious Studies at the Open University He is author of National Religion and the Prayer Book Controversy 1927-1928 The Boydell Press 2009

Letter from America Gil Ndi-Shang, 2020-01-06 Inspired by Alistair Cooke's masterpiece Letter from America 1934-2004 that depicted the transformation of British culture in the United States of America Ndi Shang's text redefines America focusing on the melting pot engendered by African indigenous European and Asian cultures in Latin America through the case of Peru the erstwhile epicentre of Spanish empire in Latin America It is a reflection on the triangular relationship between Africa Europe and America against the backdrop of slavery and neo colonialism which continue to define intimate experiences daily interactions personal trajectories and human relations in a globalized world Ndi Shang probes into the legacies of racial inequalities but also the possibilities of a new ethic of encounter amongst human beings cultures The text is based on an intricate interweaving of the humorous with the tragic the personal with the global

the historical with the current and the real with the creative
