Palgrave, 2018-02-12 Excerpt from The Chairman's Handbook Suggestions and Rules for the Conduct of Chairmen of Public and Other Meetings Based Upon the Procedure and the Practice of Parliament With an Introductory Letter Addressed to the Right Hon Viscount Hampden G C B When the Speaker of the House of Commons The permission to preface an attempt to popularise the business method of that Assembly over which you with so much distinction preside with a letter addressed to you is an honour that claims my most grateful recognition And this act of kindness on your part is the more welcome as my special object has been the assistance of chairmen who in the discharge of their duty seek to act in imitation of the Speaker of the House of Commons Following the line thus indicated I have endeavoured to show how according to parliamentary usage a Chairman is chosen discussion guided and motions put to the vote And rules of procedure are added based on Sir T Erskine May's Treatise on Parliamentary Practice an acknowledgment indeed which applies to the whole of this publication As the sound usage under which the House of Commons regulates deliberation is the result of English common sense acting with precision and uniformity for at least three centuries it might be presumed that an explanation of the merits of a usage so in harmony with our national cast of thought would be almost unnecessary About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
