House Lust Daniel McGinn,2008-01-08 A rich narrative that blends social commentary with incisive reporting House Lust offers an astute funny and sometimes disturbing portrait of the behaviors that drove the greatest real estate boom in history and its eventual bust Owning a home has long been considered the fulfillment of the American Dream But in the last decade as the real estate market boomed Americans fascination with homes turned into a frenzy Everywhere we turned people were talking about scheming over envying shopping for refinancing or just plain ogling houses in the process we ve transformed shelter from a basic necessity into an all consuming passion In House Lust Newsweek s Daniel McGinn travels the country to explore the roots of this mania Even as the real estate boom has turned to bust Americans remain obsessed with houses many of us are still trading up adding on or doubling down to buy vacation property But for others this zeal for housing has carried a painful price one that s evident in the soaring foreclosure rates and mounting despair as millions of homeowners and their lenders realize they ve stretched too far to buy the home of their dreams In a compelling narrative that takes us inside the homes and psyches of the House Lust afflicted throughout the nation McGinn examines the forces that turned housing into the talk of dinner parties He explores the arms race for square footage and introduces readers to a menagerie of characters from the real estate world from renovation psychologists who treat remodeling addled clients to a guy who trades vacation time shares the way kids trade baseball cards McGinn also jumps into the fray himself by enrolling in real estate school and buying an investment property sight unseen over the Internet House Lust shows us just how contagious the ideal of owning the best home on the block can be And as the real estate boom recedes into memory McGinn offers cautionary tales to help us curb our lust when prices start rising again take costly time off When firefighter Hayden Walters rescues a man from a burning building he s just doing his job He doesn t expect it to turn his life upside down but the man is none other than Hayden s high school bully He definitely doesn t expect Kyle to come to the station to thank him in person With awkward apologies out of the way Kyle and Hayden realize they have a lot in common And when it turns out someone set the fire at Kyle s construction site to target him they find they can solve each other s problems too Hayden needs a place to stay while his apartment is renovated and Kyle doesn t want to be alone in case the firebug strikes again Things between the two of them quickly heat up but so does the arsonist s agenda Can they track down the would be killer before it s too late

Murder in Musicland Diana Kirk, 2004-10 1 Best Author on the Internet 1999 Preditors and Editors Readers Poll Ordinarily there isn t much business for a private investigator in Branson Missouri Especially a fifty five year old retired police officer But business is about to pick up July in the Ozarks is brutal especially around the Table Rock area The air is a mixture of hot and steamy and on that particular night after fighting the killer tourist traffic I went into my kitchen mixed a stiff gin and tonic and stepped out onto the deck A cool breeze drifted off the water and brushed gently over my face The moon nearly full danced over Lake Taneycomo with shimmering brightness Two days until the fourth of July and I had my own show right here I strolled over to the end of the deck and faced the orange neon glow doming the business district The stars were big bright and kissed the lake I sipped away trying to remember why I d moved down here into country music heaven Late night shadows can play tricks I could have sworn there was movement in the mimosa bushes One ones beside my driveway down toward the road But the breeze wasn t strong enough to move its branches Or was it Funny I d never noticed that before I laughed at my skittishness I edged back where I could enjoy the dancing moon and listened to the water lapping softly against the shoreline Sometimes I take things for granted especially at night Like not looking where I m stepping on my own deck A whiff of stale beer and tobacco drifted past I wasn t alone Turning around I tripped over a silhouette sitting in my chaise I m not given to panic so I backed up swallowed hard and stifled a yelp Startled out of a sound sleep the dark figure bolted upright and pointed his weapon at me In the moonlight I couldn t exactly make out the caliber but I know the outline of a gun barrel when I see one Especially when it s stuck in my face
