Nancy A. Anderson, 2007

Reading aloud to young children has been advocated as a vital experience in literacy development both at home and school. Studies show that participation with adults and peers in book reading at home and school increases young children's desire to read and improves their reading comprehension. Often however teachers and parents need guidance on which books to select out of more than 50 000 children's books in print. To simplify the search for quality picture books this book provides annotations of the 200 best selling picture books and offers ideas on how to share them with children. It contains descriptions of best selling picture books both old and new. Titles were selected for inclusion based on the volume of sales rather than the tastes of a single individual or small committee. Books are grouped by suggested age levels. Media Review Digest C. Edward Wall, 1979 The Publishers Weekly, 2006 PC Magazine, 1998 Interwar Women's Comic Fiction Nicola Darwood, Nick Turner, 2020-01-10 This collection of essays examines the work of five intermodernist writers. Some were established authors before the First World War and others continued to write after the Second World War but this book focuses particularly on their writing between 1918 and 1939. Elizabeth von Arnim, Stella Benson, Bradda Field, Ivy Compton Burnett, Stella Gibbons and Winifred Watson had much in common: they all wrote novels full of comic moments which often challenged the cultural politics of the interwar period. Drawing on the literary and critical contexts of each novel, the essays here discuss the use of comic structures that enabled the authors to critique the dominant patriarchal structures of their time and offer an alternative, sometimes subversive, view of the world in which their characters reside. This book contributes to the growing scholarly interest in interwar fiction, focusing principally on novelists who have fallen out of public view. It widens our understanding both of the authors and of the continuing, highly topical debate about interwar women novelists. Parties, 1929 Childrens' Catalog H.W.
