Blackburn's investigation found the British government and the members of the Red International of Labour Organizations (RILU) government sympathizers were opposed to the growth of Redleg's trade union movement in the east of the United Kingdom, and their support for organizations and programs reflected a pro-unionist agenda that was far from government Redleg. Additionally, other sympathetic members of the RILU and the International are involved in the anti-unionist efforts to prevent the growth of the Redleg's trade union movement in the east of the United Kingdom.
