PARTICULARS OF OFFENCE(SEE SECOND SCHEDULE OF C.P.C)	On the 16th day of October, 2024 at Nakuru Law Courts, Chief Magistrate Sinore issued an order to confine the narcotic exhibits designated NO.002 in the case of Republic v. Sindiga Misc. Application 116 of 2024 to which a ruling had been issued by the said magistrate within the court premises. Incidentally, the exhibits of market value, Ksh.17,000,000 got stolen within the weekend. The Chief Magistrate's insistence to give the order withholding the exhibits contrary to section 65(f) and 68(a) of the Magistrates Registry Manual shows that she had interest in the exhibits and thus probable cause to conspire to steal the exhibits with Mr. Zubeida, a suspected drug dealer with whom the said magistrate was seen to be in close communication with through a series of meetings held in Xenon Hotel, Milimani Sub-County, Nakuru County between the 11 th and the 14 th of October consistently from 6.30 PM to 8.00 PM as recounted by witnesses and captured by CCTV footage belonging to the establishment.

Procedures in Criminal Law in Kenya Momanyi Bwonwong'a,1994 Essentials of Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick Kiage,2010 Written in a clear concise and engaging style this book presents the entire criminal process in a simple yet authoritative and informative way The core principles that underpin the criminal procedure their rationale and assumptions are well articulated and critiqued In addition the book presents by way of illustration a comprehensive range of the latest local judicial decisions A Handbook on Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick L. O. Lumumba,1998 Criminal Procedure in Uganda and Kenya Douglas Brown,1970 The Criminal Trial Process Irene Maina,2009 The Ashgate Research Companion to International Criminal Law Yvonne McDermott,2016-03-23 International criminal law is at a crucial point in its history and development and the time is right for practitioners academics and students to take stock of the lessons learnt from the past fifteen years as the international community moves towards an increasingly uni polar international criminal legal order with the International Criminal Court ICC at the helm This unique Research Companion takes a critical approach to a wide variety of theoretical practical legal and policy issues surrounding and underpinning the operation of international criminal law as applied by international criminal tribunals The book is divided into four main parts The first part analyses international crimes and modes of liability with a view to identifying areas which have been inconsistently or misguidedly interpreted overlooked to date or are likely to be increasingly significant in future The second part examines international criminal processes and procedures and here the authors discuss issues such as victim participation and the rights of the accused The third part is a discussion of complementarity and sentencing while the final part of the book looks at international criminal justice in context The authors raise issues which are likely to provide the most significant challenges and most promising opportunities for the continuing development of this body of law As international criminal law becomes more established as a distinct discipline it becomes imperative for international criminal scholarship to provide a degree of critical analysis both of individual legal issues and of the international criminal project as a whole This book represents an important collective effort to introduce an element of legal realism or critical legal studies into the academic discourse An Introduction to Kenya Law Kenya Institute of Administration,1975 The African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples' Rights in Context Charles C. Jalloh,Kamari M. Clarke,Vincent O. Nmehielle,2019-05-16 This volume analyses the prospects and challenges of the African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples Rights in context The book is for all readers interested in African institutions and contemporary global challenges of peace security human rights and international law This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Compendium of Key Documents Relating to Human Rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa ,2008 The compendium of key Documents relating to human rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa provides instrument policies and cases which are relevant to HIV AIDS Department of Justice Oversight United States. The rule of law is widely seen as the cornerstone of any effective polity and increasingly a vital component of the international political system If the international rule of law were to be strengthened it would greatly contribute to trade security human rights and global cooperation in a range of fields Yet in many areas the rule of law seems almost absent in international affairs This book explores the institutions that support the effectiveness of the rule of law domestically It focuses on the extent to which similar institutions already exist at international level and analyses the possibility of their further development The authors speculate on how the international rule of law might be advanced in the future thereby suggesting potential strategies for strengthening the international rule of law Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and combining the fields of international relations politics and law this book covers a range institutions including UN Security Council International Court of Justice Human rights machinery Regional human rights International Criminal Court World Trade Organization International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations It will be of strong interest to students and scholars of international relations international organisations global governance international law migration law international peace and security law applied ethics political economy political science and sociology
