Oxford Guide To Film Studies Table Of Contents:

European Cinema Thomas Elsaesser, 2025-10-01 In the face of renewed competition from Hollywood since the early 1980s and the challenges posed to Europe's national cinemas by the fall of the Wall in 1989 independent filmmaking in Europe has begun to re-invent itself European Cinema Face to Face with Hollywood re-assesses the different debates and presents a broader framework for understanding the forces at work since the 1960s These include the interface of world cinema and the rise of Asian cinemas the importance of the international film festival circuit the role of television as well as the changing aesthetics of auteur cinema New audiences have different allegiances and new technologies enable networks to reshape identities but European cinema still has an important function in setting critical and creative agendas even as its economic and institutional bases are in transition Compositional Subjects Laura Hyun Yi Kang, 2002-06-19 Traces the way Asian American women have been represented in film literature and political economy The Hollywood Renaissance Peter Krämer, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self-censorship Long-standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards William Shakespeare: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide David Bevington, 2010-06 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of Islamic studies find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated related This ebook is a static version of an article from Oxford Bibliographies Online Renaissance and Reformation a dynamic continuously updated online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of European history and culture between the 14th and 17th centuries Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.oxfordbibliographies.com The ^AOxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies Thomas Leitch, 2017-03-17 The Oxford Handbook of Adaptation Studies provides a comprehensive and forward looking treatment of adaptation in its many guises by looking at movies based on sources other than novels including television series and radio adaptations comic book adaptations of literary texts novelizations opera librettos popular songs and even video games A New Guide to the Collections in the Library of the American Philosophical Society American Philosophical Society, J. Stephen Catlett, 1987 Rev ed of Guide to the archives and manuscript collections of the American Philosophical Society 1966 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Teaching in the 21st Century Alice Robertson, Barbara Smith, 2002-05-03 The essays in this book argue that the active learning strategies that teachers trained in composition use for their literature courses can be exported to other disciplines to enhance both teacher performance and student learning The book provides and explains examples of those strategies and illustrates how they have been effectively used in other disciplines G.K. Hall Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 2003 Asian American Film Festivals Erin Franziska Högerle, 2020-10-26 Responding to a lack of studies on the film festival s role in the production of cultural memory this book explores different parameters through which film festivals shape our reception and memories of films By focusing on two Asian American film festivals this book analyzes the frames of memory that festivals create for their films constructed through and circulated by the various festival media It further establishes that festival locations both cities and screening venues play a significant role in shaping our experience of films Finally it shows that festivals produce performances which help guide audiences towards certain readings and direct the film s role as a memory object Bringing together film festival studies and memory studies Asian American Film Festivals offers a mixed methods approach with which to explore the film festival phenomenon thus shedding light on the complex dynamics of frames locations and performances shaping the festival s memory practices It also draws attention to the understudied genre of Asian American film festivals showing how these festivals actively engage in constructing and performing a minority group s collective identity and memory Shakespeare, The Movie II Richard Burt, Lynda E.

Boose,2004-02-24 Combining three key essays from the earlier collection with exciting new work from leading contributors this text offers sixteen fascinating essays It is quite simply a must read for any student of Shakespeare film or cultural studies
