Regional Convention Notebooks For Kids 2014:

Throw Your Voice Meghanne Barker, 2024-08-15 Throw Your Voice is a story of loss and recovery. It relates how children placed in a temporary care institution make sense of their situations. Moving between a Kazakhstan government children's home Hope House and the Almaty State Puppet Theater, Meghanne Barker shows how children and puppets as proxies bring to life ideologies of childhood and visions of a rosy future. Sites and stories run in parallel. Framed by the narrative of Anton Chekhov's Kashtanka about a lost dog taken in by a kind stranger, the author follows the story's staging at the puppet theater. At Hope House, children find themselves on a path similar to Kashtanka, dislodged from their first homes to reside in a second. The heart of this story is about living in displacement and about the fragile intimacies achieved amidst conditions of missing. Whether due to war, migration, or pandemic, people get separated from those closest to them. Throw Your Voice examines how strangers become familiar and how objects mediate precarious ties. She shows how people use fantasy to mitigate loss.

SADC Gender Protocol 2014 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Dube, Sifiso, 2014-10-25. In August 2008, Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground-breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development. This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance. By the 2013 Heads of State summit, 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol. The Protocol is now in force. With one year to go, time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality. In keeping with the Alliance slogan 'Yes we must', this 2014 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measured by all those who cherish democracy in the region. The world and SADC is also looking to the future with the post-2015 agenda. Now is the time to strengthen, resolve, reconsider, reposition and re-strategise for 2030.

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16. Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world, comprising their aims, activities, and events.

Young Children in the World and Their Rights Adrijana Višnjić-Jevtić, Alicja R. Sadownik, Ingrid Engdahl, 2021-04-20. This book provides different perspectives on the concept of children's rights, including policy, educational, and children's perspectives. It examines how the crucial ideas of the Convention on the Rights of the Child are respected and implemented in 14 countries in five regions of the world. It looks at early childhood education, children's participatory rights, and at how these rights are promoted and guaranteed in different countries. It explores the professional practice of education and its complexities, challenges, and dilemmas, as well as the role of play and of listening and participation. The book advocates children's rights today, arguing for its vital importance in the best interests of the children. In doing so, it furthers the understanding of children's rights and spreads knowledge about the Convention as a means of celebrating its 30th anniversary. The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) comprises the potential to change the lives of children to the very best. It may exalt children from the position of marginalized citizens to the centre of policies.

over the world Even though the concept of children s rights is omnipresent the respect for children s rights must be discussed While the Convention brings the new perspective of children as citizens to the world there are still challenges in its application The book interrogates challenges in understanding and applying children rights and offers possible answers to these challenges The ratification process itself does not guarantee that children s rights are respected While all adults should take responsibility for implementing the UNCRC in everyday life Early Childhood Education should give opportunities for children to learn and live their rights

The Rights of the Child in a Changing World Olga Cvejić Jančić, 2015-11-17 This book deals with the implementation of the rights of the child as enshrined in the Convention on the Rights of the Child in 21 countries from Europe Asia Australia and the USA It gives an overview of the legal status of children regarding their most salient rights such as the implementation of the best interest principle the right of the child to know about of his her origin the right to be heard to give medical consent the right of the child in the field of employment religious education of children prohibition of physical punishment protection of the child through deprivation of parental rights and in the case of inter country adoption In the last 25 years since the Convention on the Rights of the Child was adopted many States Parties to the Convention have made great efforts to pass legislation regulating the rights of the child in their commitment to the improvement of the legal status of the child However is that enough for any child to live better safer and healthier What are the practical effects of this international as well as many national instruments in the everyday life of children Have there been any outcomes in terms of improvement of their status around the world and improvement of the conditions under which they live since the Convention entered into force In tackling these questions this work presents a comparative overview of the implementation of the Convention and evaluates the results achieved
