Poole S Paradise:

The Worldmakers Ayesha Ramachandran, 2015-10-13 In this beautifully conceived book Ayesha Ramachandran reconstructs the imaginative struggles of early modern artists philosophers and writers to make sense of something that we take for granted the world imagined as a whole Once a new exciting and frightening concept the world was transformed in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries But how could one envision something that no one had ever seen in its totality The Worldmakers moves beyond histories of globalization to explore how the world itself variously understood as an object of inquiry a comprehensive category and a system of order was self consciously shaped by human agents Gathering an international cast of characters from Dutch cartographers and French philosophers to Portuguese and English poets Ramachandran describes a history of firsts the first world atlas the first global epic the first modern attempt to develop a systematic natural philosophy all part of an effort by early modern thinkers to capture the world on the page Milton,

Longinus, and the Sublime in the Seventeenth Century Thomas Matthew Vozar, 2024-03-07 In this wide ranging study in classical reception and the history of ideas Thomas Matthew Vozar shows how Milton's ideas of the sublime were informed by a deep understanding of Longinus and other ancient sources The book also demonstrates how Longinus's ideas and writings were far more prevalent in early modern England than previously thought Poole's Index to Periodical Literature
