Religious Identity and National Heritage Francis-Vincent Anthony, Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2012-06-12 What is the interplay between religion and national culture in modern times Distinguished scholars reflect on this question based on empirical research They offer a vast set of insights about how religious identity is connected to the national heritage in which people are born and brought up The Place of the Parish Martin Robinson, 2020-02-28 For a long time it looked as if the idea of the local and therefore of place seen as locality seemed to have lost its relevance Much of the church lost any sense that geographical context matters Yet that tendency to pull people out of their context has played to a consumerist mentality that sees church more as a consumer choice than a genuine community Now a shift seems to be underway that values locality much more a resurgence of interest in the parish and the importance of the church's presence in community In The Place of the Parish Martin Robinson explores this shift considering how it is manifested in a variety of contexts rural inner city Anglican and independent Drawing on specific examples linked to the so called New Parish Movement he demonstrates how a theology of place is made manifest in the mission of the church today
