Ryerson Journalism Application Deadline

Steve "Dangle" Glynn

Ryerson Journalism Application Deadline:

This Team Is Ruining My Life (But I Love Them) Steve "Dangle" Glynn, 2019-03-19 Steve Dangle's incredible odyssey from self-starting Leafs lover to sports media star. How do you turn ranting about hockey into a career? Steve Dangle Glynn is a YouTuber, podcaster, and sports personality from Toronto who managed to turn a 16-second online rant about the Maple Leafs into a career in sports media. From video blogging in his parents' house at 19 to yelling on televisions across Canada at 28, Dangle has been involved with some of the most important sports companies in the country. In between tales of Steve's adventures both online and off, This Team Is Ruining My Life is also a kind of how-to or how-not-to guide in an ever-evolving media landscape. Sometimes you have to get creative to find the job you want. This is Steve Dangle and his accidentally on purpose journey through sports media so far.

The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin, 2019-11-12 The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society discusses media around the world in their varied forms: newspapers, magazines, radio, television, film, books, music, websites, social media, mobile media, and describes the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society. This encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of media within social and cultural contexts, exploring the development of the mediated communication industry, mediated communication regulations, and societal interactions and effects. This reference work will look at issues such as free expression and government regulation of media, how people choose what media to watch, listen to, and read, and how the influence of those who control media organizations may be changing as new media empower previously unheard voices. The role of media in society will be explored from international, multidisciplinary perspectives via approximately 700 articles drawing on research from communication and media studies, sociology, anthropology, social psychology, politics, and business.

Morals and the Media Nick Russell, 1994 Confronted daily with decisions on how to present their stories, what to write and what not to write, journalists and the media are frequently accused of sensationalizing, of choosing to report the bad news and of misquoting those they interview. In this substantially updated edition of Morals and the Media, Nick Russell addresses many of the concerns the public has about the media as he examines why the media behave the way they do. He also discusses how values have been developed and applied and suggests value systems that can be used to judge special situations.

Morals and the Media, 2nd edition Nicholas Russell, 2011-11-01 Confronted daily with decisions on how to present their stories, what to write and what not to write, journalists and the media are frequently accused of sensationalizing, of choosing to report the bad news and of misquoting those they interview. In this substantially updated edition of Morals and the Media, Nick Russell addresses many of the concerns the public has about the media as he examines why the media behave the way they do. He also discusses how values have been developed and applied and suggests value systems that can be used to judge special situations. This revised edition covers the many changes in the Canadian media in the last decade, including further concentration of media ownership, media convergence, online journalism, the rise of the web log, and the tightening economic pressures on the industry as a whole While much of the debate in this field has focused on conditions in the United States Russell points out that the ethical issues that arise in Canada are often substantially different from those in the US He has also added new Tough Calls at the end of each chapter inviting readers to test their own ethics in scenarios drawn from real news stories Morals and the Media will be essential reading in journalism courses as well as an important resource for journalists It will also be of interest to the consumers of journalism the readers listeners and watchers who wonder why the media do what they do

Cultivating Entrepreneurial Changemakers Through Digital Media Education Byrd, Leslie Simone, 2021-01-22 The role of the journalist has been significantly altered and is far beyond that of being just a reporter of news in modern times Social entrepreneurship is rooted in a venture that seeks to create revenue while being anchored in providing social value to the communities the enterprise serves Combining these creates the concept of a social newspreneur which takes elements of the old business model and creates new opportunities In this way media can be reformed by everyday people who have a vision for restoring trust and facilitating alternative activities to inspire civic engagement in new and unique ways As such journalism program administrators have realized that the time has come to alter and provide innovative educational opportunities that prepare students for careers outside of traditional employment Entrepreneurship education across the disciplines is quickly becoming the status quo on today's college campuses However in making these curricular changes faculty must engage in significant assessment of these new approaches to ensure that students are obtaining a return on their investment in the college education and degree that they seek Cultivating Entrepreneurial Changemakers Through Digital Media Education is a crucial reference book that cultivates timely and relevant practices in the development of improved teaching methods assessments information delivery and technological tools that are used to facilitate and support the social entrepreneurship and digital journalism education space It explores the role of media innovation and how the landscape is ripe for the influx of social entrepreneurs or the rise of the social newspreneur The chapters cover areas such as methods used in journalism programs social entrepreneurship in course design educational technologies student learning outcomes and how these programs foster civic engagement This book is a valuable reference tool for university faculty university administrators news organization leaders journalists reporters broadcasting agencies professors practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students
