Ryan Kinkaid Mysteries Book:

Spring Rite G. Jay, 2014-10-23 A peaceful Sunday morning is transformed for gay antique dealer Ryan Kinkaid when he reads a report in the local newspaper of a teenage boy found dead in a field a few miles away from the Portsmouth New Hampshire home where he lives with his partner Ty. It's not where the body was found that concerns Ryan. It was the boy's mother's fear that her son had been killed by a bully. Bullied himself when he was younger, Ryan feels an obligation to stand up for the victim and find the killer even though he had promised Ty last winter that he wouldn't get involved in any more dangerous pursuits. But his commitment falters when Andrew Colfax, Ty's supervisor and a younger, extremely attractive man, causes Ryan to question his lover's fidelity. As this story unfolds and his initial assumptions are refuted, emotions that Ryan has long since suppressed return and force him to ask himself whose side he is on: the victim's or the killer's. Winter

Justice G. Jay, 2013-12-02 For gay antique dealer Ryan Kinkaid, winter starts off much colder than the low temperatures would indicate and threatens his happy new life with Ty in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Ryan can't remain idle when his best friend Jason Norkowski is a suspect in the death of Grumman Myers, a wealthy art collector and philanthropist. From the start, the odds are stacked against his streetwise friend. Ryan is bent on proving that a Park Avenue socialite, the only other person in the Beacon Hill residence that night, is the true culprit. Unfortunately, discovering her possible motive is like spotting a white rabbit in a snowstorm. In this tale of unshakable friendship, Ryan must leave his beloved Ty and return to Manhattan to find answers. Time is of the essence as Ryan must, with the help of Lauren and Ty's mother, untangle a web of lies and deception before his friend is charged with murder. That prospect alone comes close to destroying Jason, and in a fevered passion to prove Jason's innocence, Ryan begins to unravel a history of betrayal, revenge, and greed that may prove to be his own undoing. An Unwanted Request G. Jay, 2015-12-17 Ryan Kinkaid and his husband Timothy York witness a crime that others are quick to write off as an accident. Not surprisingly, Ryan can't dismiss it so easily even though the victim is someone he despises. In this fifth Ryan Kinkaid adventure, summer has come again. Ryan is trying to stop thinking about the events of last spring, and a diversion arrives when Lavinia Walsh Preston, the older sister of Nicholas Walsh, comes back into his life, albeit briefly. With Ty's help, they work together to discover the identity of the person who killed the cold-hearted woman by pushing her down a flight of stairs, with their only clue being the male voice they had previously heard speaking with her. Working under the radar at first, their pursuit quickly takes a new direction as the hunters become the prey. Meredith and Lauren, Jason, and Eric, even Brownie, are all here again, enhancing this tale. Autumn Reveal G. Jay, 2013-12-21 The adventure continues for gay antique dealer Ryan Kinkaid as he settles into his new life with his partner Ty in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. After he purchases a desk at a local estate sale, Ryan finds that he got more than just another antique to sell in his shop. In a sealed drawer of the desk, he finds an old diary with blood stains on the last written page. Against Ty's better judgment, Ryan is determined to learn the truth behind the secret that the diary holds. Whose blood is on the last page? Is it the diary's author or someone else's. And is that person alive or dead? In his pursuit of the answers, Ryan learns that politics does indeed make strange and twisted bedfellows. His concern is heightened when he learns that someone else is in search of the diary; someone he suspects wants to make sure that nothing is revealed this autumn or any other season. As Ryan explores the cracks in the foundation of a proud political family, Ty must reveal his own secret and come out to his family. In this second tale of family secrets, the truth tests the morality of the members of a family, one of whom will even consider murder.

Summer Spirit G. Jay, 2013-12-18 Ryan Kinkaid, a successful gay Manhattan antique dealer, has had it with life in New York City, especially his random love life. Ryan has what most New Yorkers want: his own successful business and a mortgage-free brownstone on West 71st Street. However, at age forty-one, he discovers he is lacking one very important thing in his life: a meaningful and loving relationship. With summer just around the corner, the approaching heat and his restlessness are reasons for his escape from the city. A four-month rental in historic and picturesque Portsmouth, New Hampshire, with his best friend Lauren, was the answer. Renting a house built in 1810, kindred spirit Nicholas reaches out for contact, and Ryan finds himself wanting to know about the past. However, Nicholas is not the only one wanting Ryan's attention. Ty, a handsome local man also has strong desires for Ryan The stark contrast of the past collides with the present in this tale of lost and betrayed love and irrational and undying prejudice In the end all that is left is the affirmation of the value of honesty and commitment in love
