Letter of institutional endorsement for Rhodes Scholarship

On behalf of the University of Lagos' Rhodes Scholarship Committee, I am pleased to endorse the candidacy of Okafor Bamidele.

Okafor Bamidele came to my attention two years ago when I received a telephone call from a faculty member. "I have this student in class. Most of the students are having a hard time, but he's blowing away every exam. Someone told me he plays football. You might want to talk with him. He might be Rhodes material." I was cautiously pessimistic: a jock with good grades, but Rhodes material...?

Soon after this conversation I discovered, a bit to my surprise, that Bamidele was a member of the Honors College. I called and asked him to come by for a chat. Upon his arrival, he removed a backpack so overstuffed he couldn't zip it closed. As he set it on the floor, out spilled two books by Carl Sagan. "What class are you reading those for," I asked? "Oh, those aren't for a course," he replied. "The team's traveling today. I don't want to sit around the hotel watching TV, so I brought these along. You wouldn't happen to have something I could borrow, would you?" That was the last time I remember seeing my copy of How to Think Like Leonardo da Vinci.

As pleasant as this interaction was, somehow I sensed it might be our last. Bamidele's interest in the Rhodes scholarship would fade under the pressure of classes and football practice. In the unlikely event of his continuing to pursue the Rhodes, he would eventually give it up as dreams of the NFL draft relegated drafts of personal essays to the back burner. Once again, I misjudged him.

Still, I wondered how Bamidele would handle the campus Rhodes interview. My guess was that despite an exceptional academic record and his poise as captain of the football team, the interview would be a different and possibly unpleasant experience for him. Perhaps it was a reflection of his linebacker temperament, but Bamidele seemed to thoroughly enjoy the rough and tumble. When presented questions intended to catch him in contradictions and trap him into moral and ethical corners, he defended his position with confidence.

Despite his athletic celebrity, Bamidele is utterly without pretension or conceit. He is a quiet and selfless leader who needs neither a pedestal nor a bellowing voice to command respect. He simply behaves well. Though he practices good "impression management," it is not a skill he has developed and honed for the Rhodes competition; it comes naturally to him.

If Bamidele has a shortcoming, it is in the area of communication skills, particularly his writing. He tends to express himself in a punchy, almost conversational tone, and his style lacks grace and elegance. Preparing his essay (a difficult task for any Rhodes candidate) was particularly arduous for him. However, throughout the application process he always responded well to constructive criticism and has shown marked improvement.

Bamidele may not be a scholar in the intellectually omnivorous sense of the term. He is unlikely to spend his lunch hour boning up on Descartes just for the heck of it. However, to my delight I have discovered that he is indeed much more than a jock with good grades. When Thomas Wolfe observed that education is gained with "pain, labor and exuberance," he must have had in mind a person like Bamidele. Any previous misgivings I may have had about his fitness for study at Oxford have been erased. It is with full confidence and enthusiasm that I endorse him for the Rhodes scholarship.

Sincerely,

Ngozi Mustapha

Bradley, 2014-04-29 Duncan Chaplin Lee was a Rhodes Scholar patriot and descendent of one of America s most distinguished families and possibly the best placed mole ever to infiltrate U S intelligence operations In A Very Principled Boy intelligence expert and former CIA officer Mark A Bradley traces the tangled roots of Lee s betrayal and reveals his harrowing struggle to stay one step ahead of America s spy hunters during and after World War II Exposed to leftist politics while studying at Oxford Lee became a committed albeit covert member of the Communist Party After following William Wild Bill Donovan to the newly formed Office of Strategic Services Lee rose quickly through the ranks of the U S intelligence service and just as quickly gained value as a Communist spy As one of the chief aides to the head of the OSS Lee was uniquely well placed to pass sensitive information to his Soviet handlers including the likely timeframe of the D Day invasion and the names of OSS personnel under investigation for suspected communist affiliations In 1945 one of Lee s former handlers confessed to the FBI and named Lee as a Soviet agent For the next thirteen years J Edgar Hoover would tirelessly but futilely attempt to prove Lee s guilt Despite being accused of treason in front of the House Un American Activities Committee the increasingly paranoid Lee miraculously escaped again and again In a move to atone for what he had done Lee later became a Cold Warrior in China fighting Mao Zedong s communists He died a free but conflicted man In A Very Principled Boy Bradley weaves a fast paced cat and mouse tale of misguided idealism high treason and belated redemption Drawing on Lee s letters and thousands of previously unreleased CIA FBI and State Department records Bradley tells the unlikely story of a spy who chose his conscience over his country and its dark consequences The Living Church ,1912 Town Journal ,1923
