Nappo,2020-12-03 The Poetry and Music of Joaquín Sabina An Angel with Black Wings

is a thoroughly researched exploration of the life music and song lyrics of the celebrated Spanish singer songwriter Joaquín Sabina. Often called the Spanish Dylan, Sabina has established his own highly poetic space over the course of his forty plus years as a recording artist. Using selected song lyrics from his fifteen studio and three major live albums, Daniel J. Nappo analyzes Sabina's use of antithesis, simile, metaphor, synesthesia, rhyme, and other rhetorical and poetic devices. Nappo also devotes a chapter to Sabina's ability as a narrator and concludes the book with a comparison of Sabina's best work with that of the American singer songwriter and Nobel laureate Bob Dylan.

Consciousness Regained Nicholas Humphrey, 1984. This book, the first by one of England's outstanding experimental psychologists, brings together a selection of essays on human consciousness, self-knowledge, aesthetics, religion, parapsychology, philosophy of mind, and the atom bomb. Throughout, Humphrey is concerned with the evolution of mind, and he puts forth the theory that self-awareness developed because it is biologically advantageous. Fluently and pleasantly written, often enlivened by wit, always easy to follow. Times Literary Supplement. Always stimulating and fun to read. Humphrey writes with elegance and force, and his ideas are always stimulating. Even the reader who disagrees with his arguments will derive pleasure.

Metaphor and Musical Thought Michael Spitzer, 2015-12-21. The scholarship of Michael Spitzer's new book is impressive and thorough. The writing is impeccable and the coverage extensive. The book treats the history of the use of metaphor in the field of classical music. It also covers a substantial part of the philosophical literature. The book treats the topic of metaphor in a new and extremely convincing manner. Lydia Goehr, Columbia University. The experience of music is an abstract and elusive one enough so that we're often forced to describe it using analogies to other forms and sensations: we say that music moves or rises like a physical form, that it contains the imagery of paintings or the grammar of language. In these and countless other ways, our discussions of music take the form of metaphor, attempting to describe music's abstractions by referencing more concrete and familiar experiences. Michael Spitzer's Metaphor and Musical Thought uses this process to create a unique and insightful history of our relationship with music, the first ever book-length study of musical metaphor in any language. Treating issues of language, aesthetics, semiotics, and cognition, Spitzer offers an evaluation, a comprehensive history, and an original theory of the ways our cultural values have informed the metaphors we use to address music. And as he brings these discussions to bear on specific works of music and follows them through current debates on how music's meaning might be considered, what emerges is a clear and engaging guide to both the philosophy of musical thought and the history of musical analysis from the seventeenth century to the present day. Spitzer writes engagingly for students of philosophy and aesthetics as well as for music theorists and historians.

How to Teach Poetry Writing at Key Stage 3 Pie Corbett, 2013-10-23 How to Teach Poetry Writing at Key Stage 3 is a practical manual for teachers to be used directly in the classroom. The book begins with a series of poetry games designed to warm up creativity and strengthen the imagination. These are followed by a series of creative poetry workshops based on the writer's own experience both as a teacher and poet, running workshops in schools which focus on developing a poetry base for young writers. This imaginative base provides a range of poetic techniques and gives pupils experience in developing a repertoire of different forms. The book also offers advice on how to organize an effective workshop and demonstrates how to teach poetry writing in a dynamic, creative, and imaginative way in relationship with the KS3 national framework. Pie Corbett also provides useful advice on working with visiting poets in school, addresses for relevant web sites, a list of books for follow-up work, and a glossary of poetic forms and techniques. Workshops include writing from first-hand observation, autobiography, valuing our lives, writing about paintings, sculpture, and music, surreal boxes, and the bag of words, secrets, lies, wishes, and dreams, creating images, taking word snapshots, riddles, hiding the truth, and red wheelbarrows and messages for mice.
