Read the case study, then answer the questions that follow.

Case study 1

Due to government funding cuts, many community care funds go unallocated and most care workers in some regions feel overwhelmed by their caseloads. Mary supervises a diverse team of community care workers. Her organisation has had a high turnover of staff recently and she wants to assist them to manage their stress.

1. Identify two (2) possible physical and two (2) behavioural indicators of significant issues relating to stress and emotional wellbeing that Mary should be alert for in individual team members.

Answer	Some indicators that Mary should consider are: - Physical: If it is observed that employee are getting constantly tired and gain or loss weight then it is a physical indicator and Mary should focus on solving such problem. - Behaviours: we can notice this one if they are unable to concentrate and if they lose their confidence.
Outcome	☐ Satisfactory ☐ Not Satisfactory

2. What responsibility does Mary have in relation to communicating with staff about personal performance?

Answer	The responsibility that Mary has, it is as a primary duty of care of every staff member under her view. It is her responsibility to make sure that every team member has understood and accepted the guidelines of standards which are set by the company. She needs to be sure that they are concrete, clearly explain and understood by every worker. This should be performed in order to reduce stress for every staff and supervisor.
Outcome	☐ Satisfactory ☐ Not Satisfactory

3. Identify three (3) actions Mary can take to support individual staff members to manage stress.

Answer	Some actions that Mary can take to support her team to manage stress at work are: - Ensure appropriate and diverse workloads. - Build a workplace culture that normalises the risk of secondary trauma. - Making it easy for individuals to talk about it and get support for.

Krubitzer, 2016-11-23 Evolution of Nervous Systems Second Edition Four Volume Set is a unique major reference which offers the gold standard for those interested both in evolution and nervous systems All biology only makes sense when seen in the light of evolution and this is especially true for the nervous system All animals have nervous systems that mediate their behaviors many of them species specific yet these nervous systems all evolved from the simple nervous system of a common ancestor To understand these nervous systems we need to know how they vary and how this variation emerged in evolution In the first edition of this important reference work over 100 distinguished neuroscientists assembled the current state of the art knowledge on how nervous systems have evolved throughout the animal kingdom This second edition remains rich in detail and broad in scope outlining the changes in brain and nervous system organization that occurred from the first invertebrates and vertebrates to present day fishes reptiles birds mammals and especially primates including humans The book also includes wholly new content fully updating the chapters in the previous edition and offering brand new content on current developments in the field Each of the volumes has been carefully restructured to offer expanded coverage of non mammalian taxa mammals primates and the human nervous system The basic principles of brain evolution are discussed as are mechanisms of change The reader can select from chapters on highly specific topics or those that provide an overview of current thinking and approaches making this an indispensable work for students and researchers alike Presents a broad range of topics ranging from genetic control of development in invertebrates to human cognition offering a one stop resource for the evolution of nervous systems throughout the animal kingdom Incorporates the expertise of over 100 outstanding investigators who provide their conclusions in the context of the latest experimental results Presents areas of disagreement and consensus views that provide a holistic view of the subjects under discussion

Performance Management in Nonprofit Organizations

Zahirul Hoque, Lee Parker, 2014-10-10 With increased competition for external funding technological advancement and public expectations for transparency not for profit and non governmental organizations are facing new challenges and pressures While research has explored the roles of accounting accountability and performance management in nonprofit organizations we still lack evidence on the best practices these organizations implement in the areas of accountability and performance management This book collects and presents that evidence for the first time offering insights to help nonprofits face these new challenges head on Performance Management in Nonprofit Organizations focuses on both conventional and contemporary issues facing nonprofits presenting evidence based insights from leading scholars in the field Chapters examine the design implementation and working of accounting accountability governance and performance management measures providing both retrospective and contemporary views as well as critical commentaries on accounting and performance related issues in nonprofit organizations The book s contributors also offer critical commentaries on the changing role of accounting and performance management in this sector This research based collection is an interesting and useful read for academics practitioners students and consultants in nonprofit organizations and is highly accessible to accounting and non accounting audiences alike

Development and the African Diaspora

Doctor Claire Mercer, Ben Page, Martin Evans, 2009-05-22 There has been much recent celebration of the success of African civil society in forging global connections through an ever growing diaspora Against the background of such celebrations this innovative book sheds light on the diasporic networks home associations whose economic contributions are being used to develop home Despite these networks being part of the flow of migrants resources back to Africa that now outweighs official development assistance the relationship between the flow of capital and social and political change are still poorly understood Looking in particular at Cameroon and Tanzania the authors examine the networks of migrants that have been created by making home associations international They argue that claims in favour of enlarging civil society in Africa must be placed in the broader context of the political economy of migration and wider debates concerning ethnicity and belonging They demonstrate both that diasporic development is distinct from mainstream development and that it is an uneven historical process in which some homes are better placed to take advantage of global connections than others In doing so the book engages critically with the current enthusiasm among policy makers for treating the African diaspora as an untapped resource for combating poverty Its focus on diasporic networks rather than private remittances reveals the particular successes and challenges diasporas face in acting as a group not least in mobilising members of the diaspora to fulfill obligations to home Materials and the Environment M. F. Ashby, 2012-03-28 Addressing the growing global concern for sustainable engineering this title is devoted exclusively to the environmental aspects of materials Acidic Deposition: Terrestrial, materials, health and visibility effects Patricia M.
