On Wednesday night, approximately 100,000 people gathered on the roof of the Kohn Building for the Assembly's session on the emergency budget, calling the Senate's position on the emergency referendum "a far-sighted, forward-looking, and courageous move." The Assembly's position, the emergency budget, is the best, they are convinced. The Assembly will therefore stand for the best in the coming referendum: to far-sightedly reject the government's proposed basic budget, and to support the Assembly's emergency budget. The Assembly will therefore be the best in the coming referendum: to far-sightedly reject the government's proposed basic budget, and to support the Assembly's emergency budget. Students will often produce a sentence describing an event and then quickly translate it to the next step in the process. For instance, a child might say, "I'm washing my hands," and then say, "I'm drying my hands." The teacher can then ask the student to describe the next step in the process, such as "I'm putting on my shirt." This can help the student to understand the sequence of events and to use the correct vocabulary to describe them.
