Season Of The Rainbirds English Edition:

Contemporary Pakistani Fiction in English Cara Cilano, 2013-04-12 Looking at a wide selection of Pakistani novels in English this book explores how literary texts imaginatively probe the past convey the present and project a future in terms that facilitate a sense of collective belonging The novels discussed cover a range of historical movements and developments including pre 20th century Islamic history the 1947 partition the 1971 Pakistani war the Zia years and post 9 11 Pakistan as well as pervasive themes including ethnonationalist tensions the zamindari system and conspiracy thinking The book offers a range of representations of how and whether collective belonging takes shape and illustrates how the Pakistani novel in English often overshadowed by the proliferation of the Indian novel in English complements Pakistani multi lingual literary imaginaries by presenting alternatives to standard versions of history and by highlighting the issues English language literary production bring to the fore in a broader Pakistani context It goes on to look at the literary devices and themes used to portray idea nation and state as a foundation for collective belonging The book illustrates the distinct contributions the Pakistani novel in English makes to the larger fields of postcolonial and South Asian literary and cultural studies British Muslim Fictions C. Chambers, 2012-03-09 Through interviews with leading writers including Ahdaf Soueif and Hanif Kureishi this book analyzes the writing and opinions of novelists of Muslim heritage based in the UK Discussion centres on writers work literary techniques and influences and on their views of such issues as the hijab the war on terror and the Rushdie Affair The Big Bookshelf Sunil Sethi, 2011 Famous writers are often reticent about how and why they write how their ideas and themes develop or how their characters and plots emerge They can be equally reserved about their personal histories But in the hands of seasoned journalist and skilful interviewer Sunil Sethi presenter of Just Books NDTV's long running weekend literary show they open up in unexpected and fascinating ways In this selection of thirty of his best interviews from Just Books they speak freely and frankly about their craft their life stories and the nature of their creative impulse Featured here are literary giants including Nobel laureates and Booker Prize winners internationally acclaimed historians biographers and philosophers authors of best selling thrillers novels and travel books and brilliant young trendsetters Their conversations with Sethi are in turn reflective and incisive witty and poignant but always candid and intimate as they provide rare insights into their inner lives and engagement with the world they inhabit Each voice in this diverse collection is original distinctive and revealing as they cover the wide terrain of life and literature This volume vividly brings alive each author's personality and work ingeniously bridging the gap between reader and writer British Asian fiction Sara Upstone, 2013-07-19 This is the first text to focus solely on the writing of British writers of South Asian descent born or raised in Britain Exploring the unique contribution of these writers it positions their work within debates surrounding black British diasporic migrant and postcolonial literature in order to foreground both the continuities and tensions embedded in their relationship to such terms engaging in particular with the ways in which this new generation has been denied the right to a distinctive theoretical framework through absorption into pre existing frames of reference Focusing on the diversity of contemporary British Asian experience the book engages with themes including gender national and religious identity the reality of post 9 11 Britain the post ethnic self urban belonging generational difference and youth identities as well as indicating how these writers manipulate genre and the novel form in support of their thematic concerns
