

The background of the cover is a photograph of a woman with long, dark, wavy hair, seen from the back and slightly to the side. She is looking down and to the left. She is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved top with a dark, grid-like pattern. She is standing behind a white picket fence. In the background, there is a white house with a porch and a staircase, surrounded by green trees and foliage. The overall tone is soft and somewhat somber.

Sisterchicks Down Under Robin Jones Gunn, 2009-01-21 Kathleen joins her husband for a three month trip to New Zealand when he's hired by a film studio in Wellington Leaving behind all that is familiar in her comfortable corner in Southern California she realizes that the past twenty years have been so tightly woven into the life of her only daughter that she's not sure who she is on her own or with her husband In her isolation Kathleen begins to contemplate reinventing herself but before her crazy schemes take flight she meets Jill at the Chocolate Fish cafe Even though the two women are very different at first glance they find they share a common Sisterchick heart and instantly forge a friendship that takes them on a journey where both Kathleen and Jill find that God has returned to them the truest part of themselves that was set aside so many years ago Topsy Turvy Down Under SISTERCHICK™ n a friend who shares the deepest wonders of your heart loves you like a sister and provides a reality check when you're being a brat When Kathleen and her husband Tony pack up and fly off to New Zealand for Tony's three month film job Kathleen discovers more than her geography has flip flopped In the land down under comfort food comes in a jar labeled Vegemite gardens sprout hobbit statues and if you're not careful you just might venture into the Chocolate Fish cafe with feathers in your hair Of course the feathers could open up a conversation with fellow diner Jill also a California girl and an instant SISTERCHICK Together they take in a performance at the Sydney Opera House hold hands with a mama kangaroo and greet her in pocket joey watch dolphins surf the New Zealand waves and discover that in a topsy turvy land where Bob's your uncle is a statement that actually makes sense one's heart is likely to fall head over heels into a deeper sense of God's love Story Behind the Book My motivation for the Sisterchicks books came from being involved with so many women who get halfway through life and shipwreck their faith or their families in search of themselves I wanted to write a book that extols faithfulness and shines the light on God's plan for a woman's life which is always more gigantic and more mysterious than she ever first believed. On the edge of my heart sits a constant prayer for the reader who lifts the covers of these books and snuggles in for a cozy read. My prayer is that she will be filled with hope and will come closer than ever to the One who loves to sprinkle His wonders over our days.

Sisterchicks in Sombreros Robin Jones Gunn, 2009-01-21 Two Canadian sisters inherit beachfront property in Mexico and take off on an adventure to claim their inheritance. They travel opulently by cruise ship to Ensenada and survive a rocky trip through Baja California only to be shocked when they arrive in San Felipe. Their beachfront property is indeed on the beach but the structure is a cement slab and the Airstream trailer their uncle parked on the property in the early 1960s. With the help of a few locals the Canadian cuties figure out what to do with their less than desirable legacy. The true gift they find is that they are reconnected as sisters and discover that everything that happened along the way was part of God's plan. Say Ol the Sisterchick Way. SISTERCHICK™ is a friend who shares the deepest wonders of your heart, loves you like a sister and provides a reality check when you're being a brat. Canadian sisters Melanie and Joanne are stunned to hear they've inherited their uncle's beachfront summerhouse in Mexico. With a snap a trip is planned. They'll travel opulently by cruise ship to Ensenada, zip over to San Felipe, sign a few papers at the bank and the tropical hideaway will be theirs. What they don't expect is a spa treatment gone loco, snails and cactus on their dinner plates, risky ocean dips, a cross-country desert drive, a dishy doctor or a Federale who doesn't speak English. Fortunately, some problems really can be solved with coconut cake and if necessary, a water fight. The beachfront property and what it takes to get them there becomes a gift beyond their wildest wishes as these Sisterchicks relinquish themselves to the dreams God has for them all under the sombrero of His grace.

Story Behind the Book: A year ago in July, an associate from my publishing house walked up to my friend and I and said, "You need to go on a cruise." She grinned and told us that she had a cruise package she couldn't use and it would be her delight to see my editor and me go to Mexico on a Sisterchick adventure. After we got over the shock, we gratefully made arrangements to go cruising in December. What a time we had! Was it research or was it recharging of our creative efforts? Both! The result is the third Sisterchicks novel, Sisterchicks in Sombreros. I love it when God does His God things. His eye is on the sparrow, or in this case, Robin and her Sisterchick friend.

Sierra Jensen Collection, Vol 3 Robin Jones Gunn, 2009-02-19 Happenstance or God's Great Plan? She's the bold, free-spirited type. She's cute, she's fun, and she's following God.
