Episodes and No Commercials David Hofstede,2011-11-09 Groundbreaking Does for TV shows what Leonard Maltin s guides do for movies Forget movies Sales of TV DVDs are outpacing all other categories according to Video Store magazine The Simpsons 24 Lost Desperate Housewives Alias even old chestnuts like Columbo and Home Improvement are blowing out of the stores as fans and collectors rush to buy their favorite shows compact and complete How do buyers know which shows are the best which season contains that favorite moment which episode features that guest star They don t not without their trusty copy of 5 000 Episodes No Commercials which gives full information on every sitcom and drama released on DVD whether in season by season sets individual episodes best of compilations specials or made for TV movies Almost 500 pages of listings include year of original airing information on audio and video quality extras Easter eggs and more Every couch potato is sure to heave up off the sofa just long enough to buy 5 000 Episodes No Commercials Television Westerns Episode Guide Harris M. Lentz,1997 Since Hopalong Cassidy and the Lone Ranger blazed their first trails on television in 1949 Westerns have been the genre of choice for 180 series Some Gunsmoke Bonanza and Maverick for example were classics others such as 26 Men and Shotgun Slade were quickly forgotten From Adventures of Briscoe County through Zorro and Son this comprehensive reference work covers all 180 Western series Each entry opens with a listing of the broadcast history of the series including original network day and time This is followed by a listing of the regular cast members and a brief premise of the series The individual episodes are then covered with the title original air date leading guest stars and a brief synopsis given An exhaustive index completes the work TV Guide ,2007 A People's Guide to Orange County Elaine Lewinnek,Gustavo Arellano,Thuy Vo Dang,2022-01-25 At first encounter Orange County can resemble the incoherent

sprawl that geographer James Howard Kunstler named The Geography of Nowhere a car dependent seemingly bland space designed most of all for efficient capitalist consumption But it is somewhere too and learning its stories helps it become more than its boosters slogans Writers Lisa Alvarez and Andrew Tonkovich residents of Orange County s remote Modjeska Canyon describe this whole county as a much constructed and contrived locale a pestered and paved landscape built and borne upon stories of human development of destruction as well as happily of enduring wild places In a similar vein essayist D J Waldie chronicler of the bordering suburb of Lakewood asserts that becoming Californian means locating yourself in habitats of memory that connect ordinary local areas with broader themes Moving beyond sentimentality nostalgia and so many sales pitches that omit far too much Waldie echoes Michel de Certeau s call to awaken the stories that sleep in the streets That is the goal of this book Inspired by Laura Pulido Laura Barraclough and Wendy Cheng s A People s Guide to Los Angeles University of California Press 2012 as well as the People s Guides to Boston and San Francisco that have followed it we offer this guidebook for locals tourists students and everyone who wants to understand where they really are This book is organized with regional chapters sorted roughly north to south by community Within each city sites are listed alphabetically After the group of entries for each city we recommend nearby restaurants as well as other sites of interest for visitors Readers may explore this book geographically or use the thematic tours in the appendix to consider environmental politics Cold War legacies the politics of housing LGBTQ spaces or Orange County s carceral state The appendix also contains suggestions for teachers using this book engaging students in cognitive mapping close reading popular culture analysis and creating additional entries of people s history While many local histories tend to focus on a few white settlers this book places attention on the people especially the subaltern ones who are hierarchically under others including workers people of color youth and LGBTQ individuals No single book can represent an entire county so we have chosen to concentrate on the lesser known power struggles that have happened here and influenced the landscape that we all share We could not include everyone of course We are mindful that other groups are currently creating more people s history on this landscape that we hope our readers will continue to explore In Orange County excavating the diverse past can be frowned upon or actively repressed by those invested in selling Orange County in the style of its booster Anglo settlers from 150 years ago This book tells the diverse political history beyond the bucolic imagery of orange crate labels We hope it will inspire readers to further explore Orange County and reflect on even more sites that could be included in the ordinary extraordinary landscape here

The Odd Couple on Stage and Screen Bob Leszczak, 2014-08-20 Inspired by the real life post divorce experiences of television comedy writer Danny Simon The Odd Couple has touched multiple generations of fans Playwright Neil Simon embellished his brother Danny's pseudo sitcom situation and created an oil and water twosome with memorable characters showcasing the foibles of mankind The original Broadway production enjoyed a run of 964 performances The story of the cohabitation of Felix Ungar and Oscar Madison translated extremely well to the silver screen and then in 1970 to television where it brought weekly laughs and mirth to an even larger audience for five seasons in prime time This thorough history details The Odd Couple in all its forms over the decades It provides capsule biographies of the stage film and television casts and crew as well as an episode guide and a wealth of little known information

Family Guy, Beastie Boys, Stop Being a Hater and Learn to Love the O.C.
