Tumeka Koyana-Letlaka,2014-11-26 This book is not about the political history of Apartheid South Africa it is about an extraordinary South African woman s life It depicts where she was born and chronicles her courageous journey into exile to Lesotho Zambia Zaire and Britain culminating with a diplomatic assignment in the United States of America This is where the politics of the day intersects with personal lives making us all more deeply appreciative of how profoundly the personal is political Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis,2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan s Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan s story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice

Economic Activist Social Entrepreneur First Chancellor of the University of Johannesburg Max Yergan David Henry Anthony,2006 In his long and fascinating life black activist and intellectual Max Yergan 1892 1975 traveled on more ground both literally and figuratively than any of his impressive contemporaries which included Adam Clayton Powell Paul Robeson W E B Du Bois and A Phillip Randolph Yergan rose through the ranks of the colored work department of the YMCA and was among the first black YMCA missionaries in South Africa His exposure to the brutality of colonial white rule in South Africa caused him to veer away from mainstream liberal civil rights organizations and by the mid 1930s into the orbit of the Communist Party A mere decade later Cold War hysteria and intimidation pushed Yergan away from progressive politics and increasingly toward conservatism In his later years he even became an apologist for apartheid Drawing on personal interviews and extensive archival research David H Anthony has written much more than a biography of this enigmatic leader In following the winding road of Yergan s life Anthony offers a tour through the complex and interrelated political and institutional movements that have shaped the history of the black world from the United States to South Africa Ciskei at Independence Ciskei (South Africa). Historical Dictionary of Lesotho John Aerni-Flessner, Charles Fogelman, Nthabiseng Mokoena-Mokhali, 2023-11-30 Lesotho's history has long been defined by its enclave status within South Africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite Basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region Since the end of apartheid in 1994 Lesotho's status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating Lesotho into South Africa Still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of Basotho and could call into question the viability and legitimacy of the state in the eyes of its citizens if it cannot enact significant reforms in the coming decades Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho Mamelodi Politics Titus Mashaba, This book explores the rich historical background of Mamelodi a township located east of Pretoria It begins with the origins of the township in 1945 when it was still known as Vlaktefontein During the apartheid era starting in the 1950s through the 1960s many of Mamelodi's residents were forcibly removed from various white designated areas and relocated as part of the Group Areas Act of 1950 The book examines the struggles of these African populations as they were segregated in all aspects of life from social and political spheres to their economic opportunities It also delves into the impact of key events including the 1976 educational strike and continues to analyze the township's transformation through the democratic era offering a comprehensive view of its historical and cultural evolution Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A. Marcum, United States-South Africa Leader Exchange Program. Study Team, 1982-01-01 The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

New Dictionary of South African Biography E. J. Verwey, 1995 This series of publications aims to fill the gaps in our history highlighting in particular the significant roles played by black leaders from all walks of life
