Frances Hodgson Burnett's The Secret Garden Jackie C. Horne,Joe Sutliff Sanders,2011-07 Frances Hodgson Burnett gained fame not only as an author of social fictions and romances but also for writing the immensely popular children s novel Little Lord Fauntleroy She seemed an unlikely candidate to pen a quiet realistic and unsentimental paean to disagreeable children and the natural world which has the power to heal them But it is precisely these qualities that have garnered The Secret Garden both a continued audience and a central place in the canon of children s literature for a century In Frances Hodgson Burnett s The Secret Garden A Children s Classic at 100 some of the most respected scholars of children s literature consider Burnett s seminal work from modern critical perspectives Contributors examine the works and authors that influenced Burnett identify authors who have drawn on The Secret Garden in their writing and situate the novel in historical and theoretical contexts These essays push beyond the themes that have tended to occupy the majority of academic scholars who have written about The Secret Garden to date In doing so they approach the text from theoretical perspectives that allow new light to illuminate old debates Scholars and students of children s literature women s literature transcontinental literature and the Victorian Edwardian period will find in this collection refreshing new looks at a children s classic A Hundred Years of the Secret Garden Marion Gymnich,Imke Lichterfeld,2012 Although Frances Hodgson Burnett published numerous works for an adult readership she is mainly remembered today for three novels written for children Little Lord Fauntleroy 1886 A Little Princess 1905 and The Secret Garden 1911 This volume is dedicated to The Secret Garden The articles address a wide range of issues including the representation of the garden in Burnett s novel in the context of cultural history the relationship between the concept of nature and female identity the idea of therapeutic places the notion of redemptive children in The Secret Garden and Little Lord Fauntleroy the concept of male identity constructions of Otherness and the redefinition of Englishness film and anime versions of Burnett s classic Noel Streatfeild s The Painted Garden as a rewriting of The Secret Garden attitudes towards food in children s classics and Burnett s novel in the context of Edwardian girlhood fiction and the tradition of the female novel of development This Secret Garden Justin Cartwright,2013-10-10 Oxford is many things But it has a symbolic meaning well beyond its buildings gardens rituals and teaching It stands for something deep in the Anglo Saxon mind excellence a kind of privilege a charmed life deep veined liberalism a respect for tradition Cartwright has spoken to many leading figures looked at favourite places in Oxford subjected himself to an English tutorial he performed very poorly attended the Freshers dinner in his old college studied various works of art and museums investigated the claim that dons like detective novels and reread many Oxford classics At the same time he has looked at some of the great debates which made Oxford what it is as well as the most recent debate about funding which ended in a resounding defeat for the reformers He depicts the beauty of this historic city the landscape of enclosed quads and gardens and the astonishing collection of buildings Cartwright concludes that the Oxford myth while outstripping the reality is as powerful as ever This is an enchanting and highly original look at Oxford indispensable reading for anyone interested in the myth and reality of Oxford

The Autobiography of Philosophy Michael Davis,2000-01-01 This is the most important book about the nature of philosophy and of the human soul published this year In making the condition for its own possibility its deepest concern philosophy is necessarily about itself it is autobiographical The first part of The Autobiography of Philosophy interprets Heidegger s Being and Time Nietzsche s On the Genealogy of

Morals Aristotle's Metaphysics and Plato's Lysis as examples of the implicitly autobiographical character of philosophy The second part is a reading of Rousseau's The Reveries of the Solitary Walker Although Rousseau's explicitly autobiographical writings are more often read for the tantalizing details of his rather eccentric life than for their philosophical import this work is an artful use of Rousseau's exile and isolation the strangest position in which a mortal could ever find himself as a paradigm for the human soul in its relation to the world In powerfully articulating the activity that is at the core of all philosophy The Reveries articulates the nature of the human soul for which this activity is the defining possibility The Secret Garden Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2006 Orphaned ten year old Mary comes to live in a lonely house on the Yorkshire moors and discovers an invalid cousin and the mysteries of a locked garden Includes a study guide Children Philosophize Worldwide Eva Marsal, Takara Dobashi, Barbara Weber, 2009 Philosophizing for with and by children in a community of inquiry has proven to be an internationally successful learning strategy that enhances both the cognitive and emotional growth of children Pioneering democratic programs for philosophizing with children now exist throughout the world The work described in this book represents the latest research on theoretical concepts and applied projects within this field and brings together contributions from twenty nine countries representing all continents The authors address questions on the theoretical foundation of Philosophy for Children the application of philosophical methods the community of inquiry international and national didactical concepts as well as the evaluation of those concepts A primary goal of this book is to enhance intercultural academic exchange and to encourage further research and practical work in this field Common Core Curriculum: English, Grades K-5 Great Minds, 2014-05-06 Common Core's English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards CCSS for English Language Arts ELA and build essential content knowledge for students in grades K-5 Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics Features of this book include Six thematic units for each grade each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science art and history into English instruction This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text updated web resources and refreshed suggested works Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core's Wheatley Portfolio guarantee that students are exposed to content rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading writing speaking listening and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA Common Core Curriculum Maps in English Language Arts, Grades 9-12 Great Minds, 2011-10-13 The first books to present specific guidance for teaching the Common Core State Standards Forty three states plus the District of Columbia and the U S Virgin Islands have signed on to adopt the Common Core State Standards CCSS The need for curriculum guides to assist teachers in helping students meet these standards has become imperative

Created by teachers for teachers the research based curriculum maps in this book present a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units for teaching the skills outlined in the CCSS for English language arts in Grades 9 12 Teachers can use the maps to plan their year and craft their own more detailed lesson plans Each grade is broken down into six units that include focus standards suggested works sample activities and assessments lesson plans and more The maps address every standard in the CCSS yet are flexible and adaptable to accommodate diverse teaching styles Any teacher school or district that chooses to follow the Common Core maps can be confident that they are adhering to the standards The Routledge

Companion to Death and Literature W. Michelle Wang, Daniel Jernigan, Neil Murphy, 2020-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Death and Literature seeks to understand the ways in which literature has engaged deeply with the ever evolving relationship humanity has with its ultimate demise It is the most comprehensive collection in this growing field of study and includes essays by Brian McHale Catherine Belling Ronald Schleifer Helen Swift and Ira Nadel as well as the work of a generation of younger scholars from around the globe who bring valuable transnational insights Encompassing a diverse range of mediums and genres including biography and autobiography documentary drama elegy film the novel and graphic novel opera picturebooks poetry television and more the contributors offer a dynamic mix of approaches that range from expansive perspectives on particular periods and genres to extended analyses of select case studies Essays are included from every major Western period including Classical Middle Ages Renaissance and so on right up to the contemporary This collection provides a telling demonstration of the myriad ways that humanity has learned to live with the inevitability of death where live with itself might mean any number of things from consoling to memorializing to rationalizing to fending off to evading and perhaps most compellingly of all to escaping Engagingly written and drawing on examples from around the world this volume is indispensable to both students and scholars working in the fields of medical humanities thanatology death studies life writing Victorian studies modernist studies narrative contemporary fiction popular culture and more

Common Core Curriculum Maps in English Language Arts, Grades K-5 Great Minds, 2011-10-19 The first books to present specific guidance for teaching the Common Core State Standards Forty three states plus the District of Columbia and the U S Virgin Islands have signed on to adopt the Common Core State Standards CCSS The need for curriculum guides to assist teachers in helping students meet these standards has become imperative Created by teachers for teachers the research based curriculum maps in this book present a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units for teaching the skills outlined in the CCSS for English language arts in Grades K 5 The maps address every standard in the CCSS yet are flexible and adaptable to accommodate diverse teaching styles Each grade is broken down into six units that include focus standards suggested works sample activities and assessments lesson plans and more Teachers can use the maps to plan their year and craft their own more detailed lesson plans Any teacher school or district that chooses to follow the Common Core maps can be confident that they are adhering to the standards Politics Out of History Wendy Brown, 2018-06-05 What happens to left and liberal political orientations when faith in progress is broken when both the sovereign individual and sovereign states seem tenuous when desire seems as likely to seek punishment as freedom when all political conviction is revealed as contingent and subjective Politics Out of History is animated by the question of how we navigate the contemporary political landscape when the traditional compass points of modernity have all but disappeared Wendy Brown diagnoses a range of contemporary political tendencies from moralistic high handedness to low lying political despair in politics from the difficulty of formulating political alternatives to reproaches against theory in intellectual life as the consequence of this disorientation Politics Out of History also presents a provocative argument for a new approach to thinking about history one that forsakes the idea that history has a purpose and treats it instead as a way of illuminating openings in the present by for example identifying the haunting and constraining effects of past injustices unresolved Brown also argues for a revitalized relationship between intellectual and political life one that cultivates the autonomy of each while promoting their interlocutory potential This book will be essential reading for all who find the trajectories of contemporary liberal democracies bewildering and are willing to engage readings of a range of thinkers Freud Marx Nietzsche Spinoza Benjamin Derrida to rethink democratic possibility in our time In Search of an Identity Edward Vickers,2004-03-01

This book traces the influences that have shaped the secondary school history curriculum during Hong Kong s prolonged political transition between the 1960s and the early 21st century focusing especially on the relationship between history teaching and identity formation The author s experience as a local history teacher during the mid 1990s made him conscious of the peculiarities of the history curriculum at the time in particular the neglect of Hong Kong s own history in both syllabuses and textbooks and the unique division between History and the entirely separate subject of Chinese History

Ma: The Japanese Secret to Contemplation and Calm Ken Rodgers,John Einarsen,2025-10-28 Ma the emptiness in which time space and thoughts are suspended is an invitation to awareness The traditional Japanese concept of ma refers to a pause or a space the moment of no action the stillness and silence that is filled with more powerful energy than the moments of action on the classic Noh stage It also refers to the pauses taken in between notes by a shakuhachi flute player or the spaces between stones in a Zen garden which reveal unexpected vistas and perspectives The eighteen thought provoking essays in this book present the work of talented writers and artists with vast experience in the fields of Japanese art religion music and philosophy They show us how the experience of ma in the traditional Zen arts and practices can be used to create a greater awareness of our surroundings to vastly improve our lives in many other areas Highlights include The Unspoken Space We Share by Pico Iyer who reflects on our word choice the way we speak to each other and the pauses in our everyday conversations Some Gravel Some Stones by Steven Mansfield who explores deliberate spaces in Japanese garden design and how these provide us with moments of calm Photographic Ma by Robert van Koesveld who draws our attention to the mysterious communicative power of spaces in photographic compositions that draw us in on a subconscious level Between

Form and Emptiness an interview with artist Miya Ando whose work in metal canvas and sculpture is deeply rooted in Zen Buddhist philosophy and reflects the human experience of time the seasons and ephemerality Moments of Silence and Stillness by Magda Rittenhouse whose explorations of traditional Japanese design focus on the spaces between inside and outside sacred and profane the safe and the unfamiliar Plus thirteen other fascinating essays Illustrated with 80 stunning photographs this book will appeal not just to those with an interest in Japanese culture and philosophy but to anyone seeking to escape the stresses and challenges of daily life and develop a more balanced meditative approach to the world L.
