Affairages Koutchoukalo Tchassim, 2023-01-23 Dans un monde de multilateralisme sur fond d'exploitation et d'outrance et de cupidité morbide la déchéance humaine est de l'ordre de l'absolu Le Géant personnage ubuesque multidimensionnel contrôle et apprécie les activités de ses valets gérants de territoires au gré de ses intérêts Plaisirs de femmes, Chantal Thomass Chantal Thomass, Musée de la mode, 2001 Patrie! Victorien Sardou, 1900 OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac, 1877 The Akragas Dialogue Monica De Cesare, Elisa Chiara Portale, Natascha Sojc, 2020-02-24 The papers of this volume focus on the sacred landscapes of ancient Sicily Religious and cultural dimensions of Greek sanctuaries are assessed in light of the results of recent excavations and new readings of literary sources The material dimension of cult practices in ancient sanctuaries is the central issue of all contributions with a focus on the findings from ancient Akragas Great attention is also paid to past ritual activities which are framed in three complementary areas of enquiry Firstly the architectural setting of sanctuaries is examined beyond temple buildings to assess the wider context of their structural and spatial complexity Secondly the material culture of votive deposition and religious feasting is analysed in terms of performative characteristics and through the lens of anthropological approaches Thirdly the significance of gender in cultic practice is investigated in light of the fresh data retrieved from the field The new findings presented in this volume contribute to close the existing research gaps in the study of sanctuaries in Sicily as well as the wider practice of Greek religion André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2017-01-28 André Bazin 1918-58 is credited with almost single handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave Among those who came under his tutelage were four who would go on to become the most renowned directors of the postwar French cinema François Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Jacques Rivette and Claude Chabrol Bazin can also be considered the principal instigator of the equally influential auteur theory the idea that since film is an art form the director of a movie must be perceived as the chief creator of its unique cinematic style André Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s contains for the first time in English in one volume much if not all of Bazin's writings on American cinema on directors such as Orson Welles Charles Chaplin Preston Sturges Alfred Hitchcock Howard Hawks John Huston Nicholas Ray Erich von Stroheim and Elia Kazan and on films such as High Noon Citizen Kane Rear Window Limelight Scarface Niagara The Red Badge of Courage Greed and Sullivan's Travels André Bazin the Critic as Thinker American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s also features a sizable scholarly apparatus including a contextual introduction to Bazin's life and work a complete bibliography of Bazin's writings on American cinema and credits of the films discussed This volume thus represents a major contribution to the still growing academic discipline of cinema studies as well as a testament to the continuing influence of one of the world's pre-eminent critical thinkers For Health and Beauty Mary Lynn Stewart, 2001 She then examines compulsory education in hygiene and gymnastics the flourishing

The Popularization of Medicine Roy Porter, 2013-06-17 In the early modern centuries, a body of popularized medical writings appeared, telling ordinary people how they could best take care of their own health. Often written by doctors, such books gave simple advice for home treatments while commonly warning of the dangers of magic, quackery, old wives' tales, and faith healing. The Popularization of Medicine explores the rise of this form of people's medicine from the early days of printing to the Victorian age, focusing on the different experiences of Britain, the Continent, and North America. The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers. As early as the 12th century, women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems. French women continued writing through the ages, their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes. And yet, of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement, very few have survived. A few writers, such as Marie de France, George Sand, and Simone de Beauvoir, became part of the canon. But critics, mostly male, had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition. As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history, scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon. This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers

Gender, Kabbalah, and the Reformation Yvonne Petry, 2004-01-01 This study examines the thought of Guillaume Postel 1510 1581 a French religious thinker who relied on Jewish Kabbalah and its mystical understanding of gender to argue that a female messiah had arrived who would heal the political and religious conflicts of sixteenth century Europe
