

A person is shown from the waist down, sitting on a sandy beach. They are using their hands to draw a large heart shape in the sand. The person's legs are spread apart, and their hands are positioned on either side of the heart, with fingers pointing towards the edges. The sand is a light brown color, and the background is a soft, out-of-focus view of the beach and ocean.

Ackerman, 2006-02-01 The divine mystery as interpreted by Paul offers transformation The believer who identifies with the death and resurrection of Christ by putting to death the old way of life Rom 6 5 11 Gal 2 20 enters into a new sphere of influence characterized by intimate fellowship with Christ One who is in this sphere is free from the snare of Adam and the world and is no longer bound by the power of sin and death The divine mystery also offers a new source of power by the indwelling Holy Spirit The Spirit brings gifts to those in Christ that enable them to function as community The highest and most significant of these is love which brings diversity together into unity The indicative is that the Spirit graces believers with love The imperative is that they should follow after the example of Paul and hence Christ in loving others The divine Spirit is described as holy and makes holiness possible for those in Christ The indicative is that fellowship with Christ is possible because of redemption The imperative is that Christ demands loyalty which cannot be shared with any other particularly with prostitutes who represent the ways of the world or idols that open doors for demons from the Conclusion
