

Report Card Narrative Templates — 1st and 2nd Grades

Subject Summaries:

Social-Emotional Learning

Our class has worked hard to learn what a community is, how to be a good community member, how to advocate for oneself through communication and problem-solving, and how to work collaboratively with peers. We created class community agreements, reflected on our collective strengths and challenges, and met regularly to solve problems and share our thinking together in class meetings. Students received direct instruction in how to name feelings, strategies for self-regulation, how to treat others with kindness and how to independently solve small problems.

Reading — Foundational Skills

Students worked in small groups, large groups, and one-on-one to learn reading foundational skills — applying grade-level phonics and word analysis skills to decode unknown words, including short vowel (CVC) and long vowel (CVCE) words, increasing fluency and automaticity of reading, and reading grade-appropriate high frequency words.

Reading — Comprehension

Students met in small, differentiated reading groups and as a whole class in order to learn reading comprehension skills, including retelling, visualizing and making text to self connections and finding a story's message to gain deeper understanding of texts. Students are beginning to make inferences about how a character is feeling based on their actions in a story, providing evidence from the text to explain a main idea or theme, and writing in response to literature.

Writing

Writing instruction focused on narrative writing with increased attention to conventions: punctuation and capital letters, introduction, transitions and endings.
