Perception-Action Cycle Vassilis Cutsuridis, Amir Hussain, John G. Taylor, 2011-02-02 The perception action cycle is the circular flow of information that takes place between the organism and its environment in the course of a sensory guided sequence of behaviour towards a goal Each action causes changes in the environment that are analyzed bottom up through the perceptual hierarchy and lead to the processing of further action top down through the executive hierarchy toward motor effectors These actions cause new changes that are analyzed and lead to new action and so the cycle continues The Perception action cycle Models architectures and hardware book provides focused and easily accessible reviews of various aspects of the perception action cycle It is an unparalleled resource of information that will be an invaluable companion to anyone in constructing and developing models algorithms and hardware implementations of autonomous machines empowered with cognitive capabilities The book is divided into three main parts In the first part leading computational neuroscientists present brain inspired models of perception attention cognitive control decision making conflict resolution and monitoring knowledge representation and reasoning learning and memory planning and action and consciousness grounded on experimental data In the second part architectures algorithms and systems with cognitive capabilities and minimal guidance from the brain are discussed These architectures algorithms and systems are inspired from the areas of cognitive science computer vision robotics information theory machine learning computer agents and artificial intelligence In the third part the analysis design and implementation of hardware systems with robust cognitive abilities from the areas of

Computers Helping People with Special Needs

Joachim Klaus, Klaus Miesenberger, Dominique Burger, Wolfgang Zagler, 2011-04-05 The introduction to the 1st International Conference on Computers for Handicapped Persons Vienna 1989 by Amin Tjoa University of Vienna and Roland Wagner University of Linz finished with the following mission statement on the Future Direction on Computers for Handicapped Persons The different themes show that a lot of problems are solved by the usage of computer technology for helping handicapped persons for instance for the blind and visually handicapped A consequence of the discussed themes there are two directions which should be done in the next years One direction is obvious The tools must be improved and research and development work should be extended to all groups of handicapped even if they are numerically not so large as for instance the blind or visually handicapped persons On the other side in the area of social implications there is an increasing demand on social science studies on overall computer use among disabled persons Because sources are in principle missing today about disabled persons work tasks research in this eld must begin by trying to survey this aspect Particular attention should be paid to the extent and character of computer use among the handicapped in work life There are a lot of questions which should be answered during the next years for reaching the aim of rehabilitation Fifteen years later the 9th International Conference on Computers Helping People with Special Needs Paris 2004 o ered a comprehensive and deepened view on general awareness special research and individual applications conce ing disabled people and their participation in our society
