Social Housing, Disadvantage, and Neighbourhood Liveability

Michelle Norris, 2013-11-12 In a groundbreaking longitudinal study researchers studied seven similar social housing neighbourhoods in Ireland to determine what factors affected their liveability In this collection of essays the same researchers return to these neighbourhoods ten years later to see what's changed Are these neighbourhoods now more liveable or leaveable Social Housing Disadvantage and Neighbourhood Liveability examines the major national and local developments that externally affected these neighbourhoods the Celtic tiger boom area based interventions and reforms in social housing management Additionally the book examines changes in the culture of social housing through studies of crime within social housing changes in public service delivery and media reporting on social housing Social Housing Disadvantage and Neighbourhood Liveability offers a new body of data valuable to researchers in Ireland and abroad on how to create more equitable and liveable social housing

The Best Place Danya Fast, 2023-11-10 In both local and international imaginations Vancouver Canada is often celebrated as one of the world's most beautiful cosmopolitan and livable cities Simultaneously the city continues to be ground zero for successive waves of public health emergency and intervention including a recent and unprecedented drug overdose crisis driven by the proliferation of illicitly manufactured fentanyl and related analogs in the local drug supply In The Best Place Addiction Intervention and Living and Dying Young in Vancouver Danya Fast explores these politics of place from the perspectives of young people who use drugs Those who are the subject of this book were in many ways relegated to the social spatial and economic margins of the city Yet they were also often at the very center of city life and state projects including the project of protecting life in the context of the current overdose crisis
