Place Call Home:

A Place to Call Home Martha Randolph Carr, 2009-12-04 The untold success story of present day orphanages now called residential education facilities REFs and academies and how they fit into the spectrum of choices for children who no longer have a family to come home to every night

A ^APlace Called Home Kim R. Manturuk, Mark R. Lindblad, Roberto G. Quercia, 2017-09-01 A Place Called Home explains that homeownership is associated with many positive and surprising non financial outcomes and also how and why this is so The book ultimately argues that homeownership is an important social tool that can improve the lives of low and moderate income people

A Place to Call Home? Lynda Smith, 2013-12-02 A Place to Call Home by Lynda Smith is set in 1936 a time between the two world wars but Jacobs story begins in 1905 He is a Russian Jewish immigrant whose parents and younger sister are desperate to escape the escalating danger of the Russian pogroms They embark on a long perilous sea journey and arrive in the northwest of England where at the age of ten years Jacob starts a new life in his adopted country His ambition is to be a successful businessman and he achieves that goal His life becomes even more complicated when he falls in love with one of his female employees They enter into an affair resulting in the birth of a son who is blissfully unaware that Jacob is his father Torn between his loyalty to his wife and daughters his deeply embedded Jewish roots and his mistress and his son Jacob is in constant turmoil about what to do so as to cause the least amount of hurt and pain to all the people he holds dear The story takes into account the horror of the Great War in which Jacob enlisted as a boy soldier in 1916 Threaded throughout this story are the themes of socio economic disparity religious bigotry ignorance and anti Semitism

A Place to Call Home Dr. Tom Obondo Okoyo, 2015-11-20 A Place to Call Home is a story of refugees no community wanted to see anywhere close to them as if they were good for nothing It is an epic portrayal of a painful dilemma of thousands of homeless internally displaced persons IDPs who were victims of the highly contested and disputed presidential election The novel is a true tear jerking reflection of a botched election in December 2007 and January 2008 which culminated into a postelection violence that brutally killed almost there thousand innocent people Some were burned alive inside a church Gods territory as they called where they had taken safe haven About seven hundred thousand people were forcibly removed from their homes some took refuge at police stations while others fled to neighboring countries to remain alive Business premises vehicles and other properties worth billions of shillings were destroyed and domestic animals were stolen This spate of violence happened at a time when thousands of ethnic militias heavily armed with homemade crude weapons were chanting war slogans and singing traditional war songs everywhere in the country Loyal to their respective presidential candidates the militias roamed the streets of towns and villages making every journey perilous Enemies who got caught were beheaded and their heads were paraded or displayed on the main highways Women were seized and gang raped by the militias and got infected with the deadly HIV AIDS virus Amazingly communities turned their backs against the combined IDPs who were looking for a permanent settlement calling them foreigners invaders or land grabbers in their own country Breathing under such horrifying circumstances all IDPs drawn from various tribes resolved to live together in peace and harmony and to prove to the world that they could live with people from other communities without any problem in spite of their language and cultural barriers The idea of living together was instilled in the IDPs by VP Nyandege who emerged as the leading light in their plight and the quest for what they could call home VP Nyandege won a special place in fellow IDPs hearts and made them believe that life was worth fighting for For seven years these IDPs have been living in squalid conditions or in makeshift camps waiting to be settled as promised by the ruling elite The IDPs lived in rough and ready dwellings with no food water toilet facilities social amenities or sanitation at all They were living in a world of their own no laws rules or culture to observe The fate of these IDPs is reminiscent of the Jews when they lived in Europe and were rejected by people in all countries after World War II and consequently had no place to call their home After seven years in isolated makeshift camps the IDPs were offered land to settle on by the Biblical Good Samaritan to prove that tribal groups once sworn enemies could live together peacefully and harmoniously And now these IDPs would like to build the countrys first utopia the same way the Israelis have transformed the desert land of Israel into another biblical Promised Land of Canaan the land of milk and honey This unfortunate event was disseminated throughout the world by the mass media
