Handbook of Environmental Psychology and Quality of Life Research Ghazlane Fleury-Bahi, Enric Pol, Oscar Navarro, 2016-08-12 This Handbook presents a broad overview of the current research carried out in environmental psychology which puts into perspective quality of life and relationships with living spaces and shows how this original analytical framework can be used to understand different environmental and societal issues Adopting an original approach this Handbook focuses on the links with other specialties in psychology especially social and health psychology together with other disciplines such as geography architecture sociology anthropology urbanism and engineering Faced with the problems of society which involve the quality of life of individuals and communities it is fundamental to consider the relationships an individual has with his different living spaces This issue of the links between quality of life and environment is becoming increasingly significant with at a local level problems resulting from different types of annoyances such as pollution and noise while at a global level

there is the central question of climate change with its harmful consequences for humans and the planet How can the impact on well being of environmental nuisances and threats for example natural risks pollution and noise be reduced How can the quality of life within daily living spaces home cities work environments be improved Why is it important to understand the psychological issues of our relationship with the global environment climatic warming ecological behaviours This Handbook is intended not only for students of various disciplines geography architecture psychology town planning etc but also for social decision makers and players who will find in it both theoretical and methodological perspectives so that psychological and environmental dimensions can be better taken into account in their working practices

Handbook of American Public Administration Edmund C. Stazyk, H. George Frederickson, 2018-10-26 Currently public administration as art and science ponders a challenging and uncertain future Thus no better time exists to take stock and ponder the practical and theoretical value of its topical coverage to date Stazyk and Frederickson have assembled an eclectic and impressive group of senior and junior scholars to join them in this intellectual exercise Collectively the contributors offer a stiletto like dissection of where and how the field's energy has been expended what knowledge it has produced what its limitations are and where future energies might best be expended Kudos to all Robert F Durant American University US This forward thinking Handbook draws on the expertise of established and emerging scholars to provide a comprehensive review of the current state and future direction of theory and practice in US public administration Chapters offer a cross disciplinary holistic review of the field pulling together leaders from subfields such as public administration public and nonprofit management finance human resource management networks nonprofits policy and politics Chapter authors conclude that the field is intellectually rich and highly nuanced but also identify numerous opportunities for growth and expansion in the coming years The Handbook charts an agenda for future research in the field The Handbook of American Public Administration is geared toward academics researchers and advanced graduate students As an authoritative text on the history and state of US public administration it proves equally suitable for national and international audiences Practitioners who may be looking for background information or state of the art knowledge about practice will also benefit from this Handbook Contributors include G Arnold G A Brewer B J Cook R S Davis L DeHart Davis M D Farnworth P S Federman S Fernandez H G Frederickson H Getha Taylor R K Ghere D Hatmaker K Hendren C J Hill N Humphrey K R Isett S Jo J E Kellough S Y Kim Y Kim L Langbein M Leighninger L E Lynn Jr D S T Matkin B Merriman C C Merritt A V Moldavanova T Nabatchi S Nicholson Crotty R O Leary Z W Oberfield A Osorio S K Pandey Y J Park S Portillo B A Radin W G Resh R L St Clair J R Sandfort L M Shimek A E Smith S R Smith E C Stazyk S Webeck E S Zeemering H L Zook

Facing Segregation Molly W. Metzger, Henry S. Webber, 2018-11-19 Since the passing of the Fair Housing Act integration by social class has decreased In Facing Segregation Metzger and Webber bring together notable scholars to reflect on how to use policy to advance housing justice and show how the power of government can be harnessed to a constructive end

Connecting Places, Connecting People Reena Tiwari, 2017-09-07

What is a better community How can we reconfigure places and transport networks to create environmentally friendly economically sound and socially just communities How can we meet the challenges of growing pollution depleting fossil fuels rising gasoline prices traffic congestion traffic fatalities increased prevalence of obesity and lack of social inclusion The era of car based planning has led to the disconnection of people and place in developed countries and is rapidly doing so in the developing countries of the Global South The unfolding mega trend in technological innovation while adding new patterns of future living and mobility in the cities will question the relevance of face to face connections What will be the glue that holds communities together in the future To build better communities and to build better cities we need to reconnect people and places Connecting Places Connecting People offers a new paradigm for place making by reordering urban planning principles from prioritizing movement of vehicles to focusing on places and the people who live in them Numerous case studies including many from developing countries in the Global South illustrate how this can be realized or fallen short of in practical terms Importantly citizens need to be engaged in policy development to connect with each other and with government agencies To measure the connectivity attributes of places and the success of strategies to meet the needs an Audit Tool is offered for a continual quantitative and qualitative evaluation The Public Administrator's Companion Sandra Emerson, Kathy Van Ness, Georgianna Streeter, Linda-Marie Sundstrom, Parker G. Emerson, 2022-12-05 The second edition of The Public Administrator's Companion A Practical Guide examines the most important elements of public administration The authors provide readers with a keen understanding of how government works useful for both students and practitioners of public administration The book discusses governmental structure human resources and public funding It delineates administrators actions in strategic planning consensus building budget development performance measurement and public policy assessment and implementation This edition includes new chapters on nonprofit organizations and leadership for administrators as well as an appendix about preparing and making presentations The previous edition's appendix on getting a job in local government has been revised to include interviewing and hiring from the perspectives of both the agency and applicant Real world examples and cases from the local state and federal level reinforce key topics Each chapter ends with a Practicing Public Administration section that provides helpful exercises for building the skills described in the chapter and a Bibliography which provides useful source materials that can broaden the reader's comprehension of the chapter covering human factors ethical legal energy and technology aspects related to automated vehicles as well as transportation infrastructure and public planning The book is based on the Automated Vehicles Symposium which was hosted by the Transportation Research Board TRB and the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems International AUVSI in San Francisco California USA in July 2017 The Routledge Handbook on Greening High-Density Cities Peng Du,Kheir Al-Kodmany,Mir M. Ali,2024-06-17 This new handbook provides a platform to bring together multidisciplinary researchers focusing on greening high density agglomerations from three perspectives climate change social implications and people s health Written by leading scholars and experts the chapters aim to summarize the state of the art and produce a reference book for policymakers practitioners academics and researchers to study design and build high density cities by integrating green spaces The topics covered in the book include but are not limited to Urban Heat Island Green Space and Carbon Sequestration Green Space and Social Equity Green Space and Public Health Biophilic Cities Urban Agriculture Vertical Farms Urban Farming Technologies Nature and Biodiversity Nature and Health Biophilic Design Green Infrastructure Urban Revitalization Post Covid Cities Smart and Resilient Cities Tall Buildings and Sustainable Vertical Cities The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L Enfant s Washington Haussmann s Paris and Burnham s Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today s world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities Contemporary Planning Practice Gavin Parker,Emma Street,2021-04-22 Planning today is an increasingly complex system of specialisms and this brand new introduction is the first textbook to offer both a broad overview of each core area in planning alongside the skills necessary to combine each specialism in order to make sustainable and efficient planning decisions In so doing it gives students a unique glimpse into the realities of working in planning today Planners need knowledge that goes beyond the history of planning decisions in order to reconcile competing demands from corporate speculative property developers to environmental activists This new role aggregating specialisms is at the forefront of this innovative approach equipping students with the tools necessary to do planning which today means being both expert and generalist specialist and synthesiser Planners must now act as professional mediators of different often conflicting or incompatible interests Planners are themselves working as specialists whether that is in heritage transport ecology economic assessment or design And this dual role reflects the organisation of this new text introduced with a wealth of practitioner informed chapters to enliven and inspire passion for the crucial role of planning This text is an ideal companion for all practitioners and students of planning and related disciplines at undergraduate and master s level The Equity Planner Jason King,2023-11-30 Economic development is intended to benefit everyone in a community however in many cases increased public and private investment can result in the pricing out and displacement of existing residents and businesses How do we achieve more equitable outcomes The Equity Planner provides a toolkit of practical solutions for planners and all those involved in placemaking to promote thoughtful inclusive planning Each chapter of The Equity Planner examines one particular aspect of inequity in the urban planning sphere covering issues such as identity retention affordability and the protection and enhancement of local assets While each chapter offers practicable solutions to these issues the Notes from the Field sections describe how these same tools have been used either successfully or unsuccessfully in projects the author has been involved in with a particular focus on the local resistance each project encountered These real world case studies are used to suggest methods to overcome such resistance which the reader can then apply to their present initiatives This book is written for urban planners local activists social scientists policymakers and anyone with an interest in equity planning This book will be of use to both practicing and training urban planners and architects who seek to add equity planning to their professional repertoire How Good Are Parklets? Quentin Stevens,2025-11-03 Parklets are innovative dynamic public spaces that are installed onto on street car parking spots These very small spaces have had a very large and lasting impact on city streets How Good Are Parklets is the first book to critically examine the parklet s purposes formats and impacts It traces the parklet s history from its invention in 2005 as an experiment that tactically reclaimed street space for broader public use to its surge in popularity worldwide after the COVID 19 pandemic for outdoor dining community gathering and play Drawing together archival research expert interviews typological analysis mapping field observation and design research this book examines parklets design production and implementation across varying urban contexts By examining a wide range of contemporary practices this book identifies parklets potentials to reshape streets meet diverse social needs and foster community engagement This book situates parklets within the wider push towards deploying temporary and tactical strategies in the planning and management of cities Its deep enquiry into one question about one type of spatial intervention contributes new insights into the complex interplays of actors interests processes and materials that are currently transforming the urban landscape one parking space at a time Child Rights and Displacement in East Africa Cherie C. Enns, Willibard J. Kombe, 2022-09-01 Focusing on the intersection of spatial justice child rights and planning policy this book investigates the challenges of resettlement in East Africa where half of those displaced are children The challenges created by displacement and resettlement are often considered from an adult centric perspective by planners and humanitarian and development experts The spatial injustice of displacement and resettlement the agency of children and the application of tools such as Child Participatory Vulnerability Index CPVI is siloed commonly overlooked or discounted This book uses a CPVI and rights based assessment of land use policies to investigate resettlement due to conflict and settlement in northern Uganda floods due to climate change in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and urban to rural migration of children due to the aids pandemic in Western Kenya Case studies from over a decade of field research are integrated with examples from applied planning projects and policy development in the East Africa region This book uses spatial justice theory to show how child friendly planning approaches can positively promote child rights in the context of resettlement Providing important insights on how to enact child friendly planning in informal settlements refugee camps and displacement camps this book will be of interest to planning and development professionals and researchers across the fields of children s rights Development Studies Planning and African Studies Pragmatic Engineering and Lifestyle David S-K. Ting, Jacqueline A. Stagner, 2023-06-05 Pragmatic Engineering and Lifestyle draws together international experts from engineering and architecture to disclose the latest insights into forging viable means to sustain tomorrow s needs Zoning Elliott Sclar, Bernadette Baird-Zars, Lauren Ames Fischer, Valerie Stahl, 2019-11-06 Zoning is at once a key technical competency of urban planning practice and a highly politicized regulatory tool How this contradiction between the technical and political is resolved has wide reaching implications for urban equity and sustainability two key concerns of urban planning Moving beyond critiques of zoning as a regulatory hindrance to local affordability or merely the rulebook that guides urban land use this textbook takes an institutional approach to zoning positioning its practice within the larger political social and economic conflicts that shape local access for diverse groups across urban space Foregrounding the historical institutional setting in which zoning is embedded allows planners to more deeply engage with the equity and sustainability issues related to zoning practice By approaching zoning from a social science and planning perspective this text engages students of urban planning policy and design with several key questions relevant to the realities of zoning and land regulation they encounter in practice Why has the practice of zoning evolved as it has How do social and economic institutions shape zoning in contemporary practice How does zoning relate to the other competencies of planning such as housing and transport Where and why has zoning an act of physical land use regulation replaced social planning These questions grounded in examples and cases will prompt readers to think critically about the potential and limitations of zoning By reforging the important links between zoning practice and the concerns of the urban planning profession this text provides a new framework for considering zoning in the 21st century and beyond
