Sims,1990 Vietnam Fire Mission Larry Allen Hilton,2025-11-30 Vietnam Fire Mission reflects on Larry Hilton s time in the U S Marine Corps initially enlisting at 18 with the belief that all Marines were infantrymen However upon completing boot camp he was assigned to artillery as a cannoneer MOS 0811 which was a significant surprise In this first hand account Hilton explains that artillery units while typically thought of as being behind the lines were often directly targeted during the Vietnam War where there were no front lines Artillery positions were frequently attacked by mortars snipers and enemy forces requiring Marines to defend themselves The author describes the initial confusion among Marines in 1965 as many had no knowledge of Vietnam before being abruptly deployed there Marines who had been stationed in the Pacific were quickly shipped to Vietnam with some arriving without their proper gear The deployment to Vietnam especially in the early stages caused frustration for those whose service was extended Reflecting on his own experiences the author recounts how the stress of war sometimes led to memory lapses For instance they struggled to recall the details of November 10 1966 despite it being the U S Marine Corps birthday only to later discover that they had participated in a ceremony in Vietnam

that day Hilton concludes that by acknowledging the challenges of recalling events accurately under the intense conditions of war he is able to share his story to the best of his ability to give the reader a glimpse in to one of the most contentious conflicts
