

- A. an adoption notice
- B. staying
- C. trade
- D. serving

Answer: D. serving

In an effort to challenge an illegal use adoption notice issued by the zoning official, the owner of an adult-use business brings a case of an up-to-date zoning map into the zoning office to show that he is in a legal zone. Planning Department Board rules on this claim, who is right?

- A. The business owner because the zoning map clearly shows the use is permitted in the zoning district.
  - B. The zoning department because an adult-use business is not permitted in any zone without a conditional-use permit.
  - C. There is not enough information provided to determine who is right.
  - D. Neither is correct because only the Board of Adjustment can make a determination as to the legitimacy of the use.
- Answer: B. The zoning department because an adult-use business is not permitted in any zone without a conditional-use permit.

A homeowner is upset after having his permit application rejected because the proposed new addition to the rear of his house does not meet new code setback requirements. The permit administrator may need to explain to the homeowner the general purpose of zoning for the
