Feeding Tommy Andrew Robertshaw,2013-05-15 I found to my delight that I had stumbled across a kind of soup kitchen The Tommy in charge was stirring a copperful of Shackles soup made from the very dregs of army cooking and stirred with a stick I must have looked in need of extra nourishment for he said D yer want a drop son Yes please I replied if you can spare it The warmth and zest from that beefy liquid unexpected as it was compelled me to accept a second bowlful which I drank with the same enthusiasm as the first George Coppard from With A Machine Gun to Cambrai From bully beef to Tickler s jam explore what kept Tommy Atkins fed in the trenches by reading recipes and learning how meals were made just yards from the enemy In this book Andrew Robertshaw combines history recipes and historical experiments to reveal how Army Cooks in the First World War fed millions of men everyday against the odds      Frontline Cookbook Andrew Robertshaw,2012-02-29 An army marches on its stomach and it fights on its stomach too yet have you ever wondered how hundreds of men on the frontline are fed amidst hails of bullets and how kitchens are created in the desert or in the trench lines In 1941 the army officially created the Army Catering Corps and opened the Army School of Cookery in Aldershot to be followed by other schools all over the world including Poona India Troops were trained to make meals out of the bare minimum of ingredients to feed a company of men from only a mess tin and cook curries to feed hundreds only yards from the frontline This book tells the story of how soldiers became army cooks their training and in the frontline kitchen Frontline Cooking also brings together recipes from the Second World War including hand written notes from troops fighting in the Middle East India and all over Europe Many recipes are illustrated with cartoons and drawings on how to assemble the perfect oven and kitchen tools at a moment s notice from nothing This book is the perfect inspiration for those who like to create an amazing meal
