

Language Study 2000 words

Students could use one or more of the following suggestions to structure their study:

- The ways in which audience expectations influence the use of language.
- How technology is used to facilitate communication.
- The extent to which group or individual identity is formed or maintained through language.
- The use of language for aesthetic purposes.
- Ways in which language or texts may support or restrict the participation of marginalised groups in the community.
- The effectiveness of the combination of different elements of texts to communicate ideas, instructions, or information.
- The extent to which concepts such as politeness or appropriateness moderate use of language.
- The formal or informal use of language.
- The use of specialised language or terms that include some people but exclude others.
- How language is used to persuade, or to influence decisions.
- The extent to which the choice and use of language have changed over time.
- How individuals new to a community are helped to use the language of the community.
- The creative and imaginative application of language.
- Possible obstructions to, and support for, effective communication in the community.
- The community's use of words or phrases from other languages.
- The extent to which globalisation has caused changes to the use of language in the community.
- Regional impacts on the use of language in the community.
- The use of language as a reflection of different levels of power or influence in the community.
- Ways in which the use of language in the community challenges or reinforces the concept of Standard Australian English.
- Ways in which euphemisms are used in the community.

Findings from the language study could be presented in one of the following forms:
