Trio Robert Pinget, 2005 Trio marks the first time these three shorter Pinget works are collected in a single volume From the sublime surrealism of Between Fantoine and Agapa through the Faulknerian take on rural life in That Voice to the musical rhythm and flow of Passacaglia this collection charts the varied career of one of the French New Novel's true luminaries The space between the fictional towns of Fantoine and Agapa is akin to Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha County an area where provincialism is neither romanticized nor parodied where intrigue often violent intrigue confronts the bucolic ideal held both by insiders and outsiders and where reality is shaped not by events but by talk and gossip by insinuation and conjecture Written over the course of his career these three novels are by turns hilarious and dark surreal and painstakingly accurate together they demonstrate the consistent quality of Pinget's versatility

Translation and Global Spaces of Power Stefan Baumgarten, Jordi Cornellà-Detrell, 2018-10-09 This book focuses on the role of translation in a globalising world It presents a series of case studies that explore the ways in which translation is subject to ideology and power play across diverging domains and genres Broadly based on a discussion of translation and the economies of power the chapters examine an array of contextual and textual factors ranging from global regional and institutional power relations to the linguistic stylistic and rhetorical implications of translation decisions The book maps the multiple ways in which power relations and ideological positions affect cross cultural communication with special reference to repressive practices in history translation policies media power and commercial hegemonies It concludes that future translation research will benefit from a more sustained emphasis on the power of technology and economic capital

As Time Goes By Joy Charnley, Caroline Verdier, 2014-07-24 Academic work in a range of disciplines has been making an important contribution to the fraught and confusing debate around ageing and through writers consciousness and experience literature just like economics psychology history and sociology can provide valuable insights into the attitudes and prejudices prevalent in society The present volume adds to this burgeoning field by providing a wide spectrum of literary analyses drawing on a range of approaches Freud Lacan Kristeva and feminist theory amongst others and covering a broad geographical area France Germany Italy Portugal Spain and Switzerland in addition to Francophone Canada and Morocco Major writers such as Balzac Cervantes Goethe Mann and Zola are discussed here as well as a number of important twentieth century writers Ben Jelloun Cixous Doubrovsky Ernaux Roy and Ungaretti and less well known figures Carvalho Chatelet and Fleutiaux Within the broad themes which structure the volume many others also emerge overlapping and often recurring in several sections These constant echoes between essays remind us that whatever the geographical location or the period in history similar issues remain pertinent across time and space whether it be family relations generational solidarity sadness and loneliness memory and dementia class differences gender differences or sexuality Together these essays contribute to the existing body of critical work by providing a series of portraits of what age is has been and might be in the future Collectively they demonstrate once more the power of literature to reflect or even prefigure social trends encouraging us to consider carefully what we think how we live and how we might shape our future societies

Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translational paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re-examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross-validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross-cultural communication scenarios Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators' cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies

Mute Objects of Expression Francis Ponge, 2008-06-02 Francis Ponge boldly proclaims his poetic goal in Mute Objects of Expression To accept the challenge that objects offer to language These objects less chosen than received spontaneously are perceived with inimitable Pongean humor and rendered into glimmering still lifes He gives voice to the often unnoticed aspects of natural objects and beings Shunning familiar poetic modes Ponge forges new visions images drawn from nature from mythology and the classics In this volume springing from the Loire countryside in the early 1940s Ponge's poems recall the violent perfume of the mimosa the cries of carnations and the flirtations of wasps From a small notebook his sole supply of paper within the wartime deprivations he composes repeated drafts of an innovative form combining poetry with analysis and impish play Despite the demoralizing clouds of Occupation Ponge wrests a soaring paean to his beloved sliver of Provence Tactile Poetics Sarah Jackson,2015-06-07 A new critical perspective on the relationship between text and tact in 20th and 21st century literature and theory The Foreign in International Crime Fiction Jean Anderson,Carolina Miranda,Barbara Pezzotti,2012-06-14 Reading texts from across the world this book examines the depiction of the foreigner in popular 20th and 21st century crime writing Literature 1989, Part 1 Astronomisches Rechen-Institut,2013-11-11 From the reviews Astronomy and Astrophysics Abstracts has appeared in semi annual volumes since 1969 and it has already become one of the fundamental publications in the fields of astronomy astrophysics and neighbouring sciences It is the most important English language abstracting journal in the mentioned branches The abstracts are classified under more than a hundred subject categories thus permitting a quick survey of the whole extended material The AAA is a valuable and important publication for all students and scientists working in the fields of astronomy and related sciences As such it represents a necessary ingredient of any astronomical library all over the world Space Science Review Dividing the whole field plus related subjects into 108 categories each work is numbered and most are accompanied by brief abstracts Fairly comprehensive cross referencing links relevant papers to more than one category and exhaustive author and subject indices are to be found at the back making the catalogues easy to use The series appears to be so complete in its coverage and always less than a year out of date that I shall certainly have to make a little more space on those shelves for future volumes The Observatory Magazine Ernest Hemingway Audre Hanneman,2015-12-08 This bibliography of Hemingway s writings and related materials includes for the first time all of his books pamphlets stories articles newspaper contributions juvenilia library holdings of his letters and manuscripts items written about Hemingway between 1918 and 1965 and short excerpts from reviews of each of Hemingway s novels It is the first bibliography of Hemingway published since 1931 and includes much material never before assembled thirty eight contributions to his high school newspaper Trapeze twenty eight Spanish Civil War dispatches and first editions published in some thirty foreign languages First editions of books and pamphlets both American and English with bibliographic descriptions are given Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Lhasa Robert Barnett,2010 There are many Lhasas One is a grid of uniform boulevards lined with plush hotels all night bars and blue glass fronted offices Another is a warren of alleyways that surround a seventh century temple built to pin down a supine demoness A web of Stalinist rectangular blocks houses the new nomenklatura Crumbling mansions once home to noble ministers famous lovers nationalist spies and covert revolutionaries now serve as shopping malls and faux antique hotels Each embodiment of the city partakes of the others memories whispered across time and along the city streets In this imaginative new work Robert Barnett offers a powerful and lyrical exploration of a city long idealized disregarded or misunderstood by outsiders Looking to its streets and stone Robert Barnett presents a searching and unforgettable portrait of Lhasa its history and its illegibility His book not only offers itself as a manual for thinking about contemporary Tibet but also questions our ways of thinking about foreign places Barnett juxtaposes contemporary accounts of Tibet architectural observations and descriptions by foreign observers to describe Lhasa and its current status as both an ancient city and a modern Chinese provincial capital His narrative reveals how historical layering popular memory symbolism and mythology constitute the story of a city Besides the ancient Buddhist temples and former picnic gardens of the Tibetan capital Lhasa describes the urban sprawl the harsh rectangular structures and the geometric blue glass tower blocks that speak of the anxieties of successive regimes intent upon improving on the past In Barnett s excavation of the city s past the buildings and the city streets interwoven with his own recollections of unrest and resistance recount the story of Tibet s complex transition from tradition to modernity and its painful history of foreign encounters and political experiment
