Teaching First-Year College Students

Maggie Murphy, 2019-05-15 The first year experience is an emerging hot topic in academic libraries and many librarians who work with first year students are interested in best practices for engaging and retaining them Professional discussion and interest groups conferences and vendor sponsored awards for librarians working with first year students are popping up left and right A critical aspect of libraries in the first year experience is effective information literacy instruction for first year students Research shows that despite growing up in a world rife with technology and information students entering college rarely bring with them the conceptual understandings and critical habits of thinking needed for finding evaluating and ethically using information in both academic and real world contexts Faculty in upper level courses expect students to learn about the research process in their first year of college and instructors in the first year curriculum expect librarians to teach this to their students Despite all this designing teaching and evaluating effective information literacy instruction specifically for first year students is not necessarily intuitive for instruction librarians That is why Teaching First Year College Students A Practical Guide for Librarians is a comprehensive how to guide for both new and experienced librarians interested in planning teaching and assessing library instruction for first year students The book Examines the related histories of library instruction and first year experience initiatives Summarizes and synthesizes empirical research and educational theory about first year students as learners and novice researchers Establishes best practices for engaging first year students through active learning and inclusive teaching Features excerpts from interviews with a number of instruction librarians who work with first year students in a range of positions and instructional contexts Includes examples of activities lesson plans and assessment ideas for first year library instruction for common first year course scenarios Includes a template to use for library instruction lesson planning Written by a library instruction coordinator with a graduate degree in First Year Studies and a first year instruction librarian Teaching First Year College Students A Practical Guide for Librarians is the first comprehensive how to guide for both new and experienced librarians interested in planning coordinating teaching and assessing library instruction for first year students

Research in Education ,1974 Evaluating the School Library Nancy Everhart Ph.D.,2020-10-14 This guide for the evaluation of school libraries both in practice and in research covers analysis techniques and research practices for conducting evaluations of curriculum collections facilities and library personnel performance This new edition of an important tool for school librarians and administrators describes how and why to conduct evaluations of school libraries and explains the evaluation of curriculum collections facilities student programs and services and library personnel The results can be used for strategic planning curriculum development and conducting action research New topics to this edition include explorations of community faculty students and school library research discussing how to bring all stakeholders to the table when evaluating the school library program personnel and services and the collection and facilities Other new topics include information on high stakes testing multiculturalism special needs students advocacy school librarians self evaluation dispositions for learning and evidence based practice This title will be of value to new school librarians in assessing how their program compares to others as well as to school library professors who will find this book useful in management and administration courses

Integrating Library Use Skills Into the General Education Curriculum Linda S Katz,2021-04-14 This provocative new book will help you design and implement the most effective library user education possible one that builds on basic library use skills through a progressively sophisticated program that is fully integrated into course curriculum at all levels from the freshman year to graduation and beyond By exploring major issues underlying the integration of library use skills and research methodologies into the general education curriculum contributors raise important questions offer creative ideas and provide insight into the many improvements made in library instruction in the past few years Following an introduction by Patricia Breivik a recognized national authority on libraries and general education contributors representing two and four year institutions and research universities discuss such issues as the relationship between high school and college programs research skills instruction in a remote access environment the use of microcomputers and end user searching programs to promote critical thinking and the improved relationship between librarians and faculty In addition to articles on library instruction geared towards question analysis information generation by field structure of published knowledge and dissemination of a discipline s literature chapters identify cooperative efforts needed among school public special academic libraries and other information agencies computer center personnel and online database vendors Bibliographic instruction librarians who are active participants in planning and administering library user education programs will find this volume to be essential for building and developing stronger more integrated programs

Engaging Students through Campus Libraries Gayle Schaub,Hazel McClure,2020-10-06 This collection of collaborative high impact learning experiences in information literacy teaches librarians how to engage students in hands on experiential learning The Association of American Colleges and Universities AAC U it features librarians and faculty partners who engage in projects that highlight salient experiential facets of the AAC U practices in order to teach information literacy In this book librarians will learn high impact experiential learning models for working with students They will understand how to think about and describe how AAC U best practices are currently embodied in their organizations They will also imagine future learning experiences for students with HIPs in mind resulting in information literacy that is integrated into disciplinary work in a vital and transformative way

The Oxford Handbook of Assessment Policy and Practice in Music Education, Volume 2 Timothy Brophy,2019-01-02 In the music classroom instructors who hope to receive aid are required to provide data on their classroom programs Due to the lack of reliable valid large scale assessments of student achievement in music however music educators in schools that accept funds face a considerable challenge in finding a way to measure student learning in their classrooms From Australia to Taiwan to the Netherlands music teachers experience similar struggles in the quest for a definitive assessment resource that can be used by both music educators and researchers In this two volume Handbook contributors from across the globe come together to provide an authority on the assessment measurement and evaluation of student learning in music The Handbook s first volume emphasizes international and theoretical perspectives on music education assessment in the major world regions This volume also looks at technical aspects of measurement in music and outlines situations where theoretical foundations can be applied to the development of tests in music The Handbook s second volume offers a series of practical and US focused approaches to music education assessment Chapters address assessment in different types of US classrooms how to assess specific skills or requirements and how assessment can be used in tertiary and music teacher education classrooms Together both volumes of The Oxford Handbook of Assessment in Music Education pave the way forward for music educators and researchers in the field
