Bette Case Dr Leonard, PhD, RN-BC, author of this continuing education course. Bette has been adventuring in nursing, education, and healthcare administration for more than 40 years. Today, she practices as an independent consultant who assists her clients to achieve their goals using educational, competency management, and quality improvement strategies.

Her clients include a variety of healthcare organizations: professional schools, professional organizations, a temporary staffing company, disease management companies, managed care organizations, a public health department, and providers of continuing nursing education. She publishes and presents two workshops, and web-based courses on a variety of professional and educational topics including precepting, teaching and learning, critical thinking, test construction, medication safety, delegation, career development, advocacy, and assertiveness.

She has written knowledge assessment tests for several healthcare organizations and developed and teaches a test and measurements course in a doctoral program.

She was among the first group of nurses certified in Nursing Professional Development in 1990. She is a charter member of the National Nursing Staff Development Organization (NNSDO), served as its membership chairperson for 10 years, and currently chairs the Products & Services Committee. She is a member of the ANCC Content Expert Panel for Nursing Professional Development and is a board member of the National Board for Certification of Nurses and Palliative Nurses. She served on the editorial board of The Journal of Continuing Education in Nursing.

Prior to establishing her consulting practice she held leadership positions in the nursing department at several pediatric hospitals.
