Indexing Center,1986 Chicano! The History of the Mexican American Civil Rights Movement F. Arturo Rosales,1997-01-01 Chicano The History of the Mexican American Civil Rights Movement is the most comprehensive account of the arduous struggle by Mexican Americans to secure and protect their civil rights It is also a companion volume to the critically acclaimed four part documentary series of the same title which is now available on video from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting Both this published volume and the video series are a testament to the Mexican American community's hard fought battle for social and legal equality as well as political and cultural identity Since the United States Mexico War 1846 1848 Mexican Americans have striven to achieve full rights as citizens From peaceful resistance and violent demonstrations when their rights were ignored or abused to the establishment of support organizations to carry on the struggle and the formation of labor unions to provide a united voice the movement grew in strength and in numbers However it was during the 1960s and 1970s that the campaign exploded into a nationwide groundswell of Mexican Americans laying claim once and for all to their civil rights and asserting their cultural heritage They took a name that had been used disparagingly against them for years Chicano and fashioned it into a battle cry a term of pride affirmation and struggle Aimed at a broad general audience as well as college and high school students Chicano focuses on four themes land labor educational reform and government With solid research accessible language and historical photographs this volume highlights individuals issues and pivotal developments that culminated in and comprised a landmark period for the second largest ethnic minority in the United States Chicano is a compelling monument to the individuals and events that transformed society Murder of a Landscape Khaled J. Bloom,2010 Between 1896 and 1919 air pollution from large scale copper smelting in northern California's Shasta County severely damaged crops and timber in a 1 000 square mile region completely devastating a core area of 200 square miles The poisons from these smelters created the nation's largest man made desert a shocking contrast to the beauty of the surrounding Cascades and Trinity Alps Offering the drama and pathos of a David and Goliath tale in which Goliath wins and strides on Murder of a Landscape makes compelling reading for anyone interested in the industrial political and environmental history of the American West Subversive Southerner Catherine Fosl,2006-08-01 With a Foreword by Angela Y Davis Winner of the 2003 Oral History Association Book

AwardWinner of the 2003 Gustavus Myers Center for Human Rights Outstanding Book Award Anne McCarty Braden 1924-2006 was a courageous southern white woman who in the late 1940s rejected her segregationist and privileged past to become a lifelong crusader against racial discrimination Arousing the conscience of white southerners to the reality of racial injustice Braden was branded a communist and seditionist by southern politicians who used McCarthyism to buttress legal and institutional segregation as it came under fire in deferral courts She became nevertheless one of the civil rights movement's staunchest white allies and one of five southern whites commended by Rev Martin Luther King Jr in his 1963 Letter from Birmingham Jail Although Braden remained a controversial figure even in the movement her commitment superseded her radical reputation and she became a mentor and advisor to students who launched the 1960s sit ins and to successive generations of peace and justice activists In this riveting oral history based biography Catherine Fosl also offers a social history of how racism sexism and anticommunism overlapped in the twentieth century south and how ripples from the Cold War divided and limited the southern civil rights movement
