On September 11th2001 32 year old Elizabeth Turner was working at Channel 4 when news broke of the attacks on the World Trade Centre Surrounded by TV screens like her colleagues she watched as the horror unfolded But for Elizabeth the atrocities were all the more painful her husband Simon was at a meeting in the restaurant at the top of the towers as the planes crashed into them Elizabeth was seven months pregnant with their first child As the destruction unfolded and Simon did not call Elizabeth's world crumbled and she spiralled into an abyss of grief more painful than most of us can imagine. This immensely moving memoir packs a powerful emotional punch and hooks the reader from the first page. The author eloquently describes how she had to hit rock bottom before she could start rebuilding a life for herself and her young son William. That she was able to recover at all is testament to the power of the human spirit. But more than this, Elizabeth has forged a completely new life and career and is now living what she calls her ultimate life. Her story offers hope that there is a way through the worst experiences not with quick fix solutions but by moving deep within yourself to bring about complete healing and recovery.

The Real Deal Daniela Dietz, 2025-08-14 Show up real. Find the one who sees you. In the noisy world of online dating it's easy to lose yourself or worse to present a polished version that hides your truth. But love built on performance never lasts. The Real Deal of Digital Dating is a raw, clear-eyed guide for anyone who's done pretending and ready to date with depth, clarity and self-respect. Written by a coach couple's therapist and funeral speaker with a sharp eye for what matters in love and in life, this book invites you to radically own your story without filters or facades: write a dating profile that speaks from the soul, attract someone who wants all of you not just the highlights. Through reflective prompts, practical tips and a dose of gentle provocation you'll walk away with more than a good profile; you'll have a deeper relationship with yourself. This is not another swipe strategy guide. It's a call to honesty. To courage. And to real connection in a digital world.

Relationships Adam Kirk Pruden, 2009-01-19 Most people have a couple stories about bad dates and failed relationships but most people are not stupid enough to publish their experiences for the entire world to read. Here lie the bare revelations of one man's failures at meeting, dating and developing successful relationships with women. My last boyfriend used to tie me up, gag me and get pretty rough. I left him after six years because I felt he didn't respect me. Cicilia revealed to me on our second date I was afraid it would scare you away if I told you about the amputation prior to meeting. Ilene apologized as I stared in wide-eyed surprise. Now that we are dating I expect you to be a real man and start paying some of my bills. Maybe my car payment or the rent. Marie explained to me on our second date I picked up a Bible and began reading verses of interest quietly to the young boy seated next to me. Yuni surprised the entire room by jumping up and yelling Stop whispering things about me. I didn't mean to lead you on by giving you my number. Kassie cautioned me when I called the number she had given me. You breathe too much, my loving wife stated.
