

COURT OBSERVATION

Every person must have his day in court, whether to prosecute and defend himself as to any disputes that may arise. This is a right that is guaranteed by the constitution and such right must be accorded to all.

In a court session that I attended, the physical appearance of the court is similar to other courts. When I first entered a court room, I expected it to be like the big courtrooms I see on TV. I was wrong. It was an average room that is quite unorganized with a lot of boxes where place at every corners probably because of the little space every court room has.

As I entered the court room I sat on the back, where the public sits, facing the judge bench at the other end of the room. I have seen in televisions how judges gets easily mad when lawyers are unprepared, when the spectators and the parties to a case are noisy, and when there is court impropriety. Surprisingly, the judges where very understanding. Although there was a judge, in one of my court observations that is very particular of proper court decorum. But such was one among the thousands.

I always thought that lawyering is very tedious for I have to prepare a lot of pleadings, search and study to be able to defend and present effectively the case in court. It is a night of "burning candles" when you need to appear in court the next day. But such is not the reality among lawyers when appearing in court. A lot of lawyers are late, unprepared and worst missed out on court hearings successively. In fact, a lawyer was reprimanded and fined by a judge for not appearing thrice in court hearings which place the client's case in jeopardy even if such client is paying the lawyer generously.

The first arraignment that I ever attended, I noticed that after the first reading in english, the clerk of court relayed the same to the accused and translating it in Bisaya in a less formal and more conversational manner. I believe it is the most important part of court proceedings because it allows the
