

Newton's 1st Law - the law of inertia

An object with no net force acting on it remains at rest or in uniform.

- Objects at rest tend to stay at rest.
- Objects in motion tend to move in a straight line at constant speed.

Inertia - A property of matter which resists changes in motion.

The best measure of an object's inertia is its mass.

Force - A push or pull.

Net forces cause the motion of an object to change.

Examples of Newton's 1st Law in Action:

When you're in a car brake
when you're turning in a car.

In the egg demonstration:

Why does the tray fly across the table? Force was applied toward the tray

Why do the cardboard cylinders go with it? The friction force

Why do the eggs drop straight down into the water? is acting like a glue.
The eggs drop straight down because of gravity.

Physics Challenge: Why doesn't a car in motion on a flat road stay in motion?

Friction forces, and air resistance.

Examples of Accelerated Motion:

speeding up : slowing down : starting :
changing direction : stopping : moving in a circle

Inertia resists acceleration.

A net force causes acceleration.

Newton's 2nd Law - the law of acceleration

When a net force is applied to an object the object will accelerate in the direction of that force.

Contraband Guides Paul H. D. Kaplan, 2020-07-09 In his best selling travel memoir The Innocents Abroad Mark Twain punningly refers to the black man who introduces him to Venetian Renaissance painting as a contraband guide, a term coined to describe fugitive slaves who assisted Union armies during the Civil War. By means of this and similar case studies Paul H. D. Kaplan documents the ways in which American cultural encounters with Europe and its venerable artistic traditions influenced nineteenth century concepts of race in the United States. Americans of the Civil War era were struck by the presence of people of color in European art and society and American artists and authors both black and white adapted and transformed European visual material to respond to the particular struggles over the identity of African Americans. Taking up the work of both well and lesser known artists and writers such as the travel writings of Mark Twain and William Dean Howells, the paintings of German American Emanuel Leutze, the epistolary exchange between John Ruskin and Charles Eliot Norton, newspaper essays written by Frederick Douglass and William J. Wilson, and the sculpture of freed slave Eugene Warburg, Kaplan lays bare how racial attitudes expressed in mid nineteenth century American art were deeply inflected by European traditions. By highlighting the contributions people of black African descent made to the fine arts in the United States during this period along with the ways in which they were represented Contraband Guides provides a fresh perspective on the theme of race in Civil War era American art It will appeal to art historians to specialists in African American studies and American studies and to general readers interested in American art and African American history      Complementary Therapies for Physical Therapy
