Process Of Parenting 9th Edition:

The Process of Parenting Jane B. Brooks, 2012-09-28 The Process of Parenting describes the many ways parents and caregivers can translate their love for children into effective parenting behavior The book has strong emphasis on the development process in terms of children s and parents growth as complex individuals and in the changing nature of their relationships over time Because parents and children are distinct individuals the book includes a problem solving approach that can help parents arrive at solutions that fit them their children and their life circumstances The ninth edition includes new first person narrative boxes and more emphasis on social context new evidence based parenting programs and international parenting

Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting Bridget A. Walsh, Jennifer A. Mortensen, 2019-10-29 Research on home visiting shows that Early Head Start EHS home based programs benefit from additional training and resources that streamline philosophy and content In this essential guide Walsh and Mortensen propose that alignment with Family Life Education s FLE strengths based methodology results in greater consistency through a model of prevention education and collaboration with families This text is the first to outline linkages between FLE and EHS home visiting It explores a qualitative study of FLE integrated in a current EHS home based program and application of FLE methodology to home visiting topics This approach will influence professional practice and provide a foundation for developing evidence based home visiting practices Online content accompanies the text with videos demonstrating the FLE approach in action and discussion questions to encourage engagement with and understanding of the core material Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting A Family Life Education Approach is essential reading for upper level undergraduate and masters students in family studies and early childhood education as well as practitioners working with children and families

A Comprehensive Guide to Child Psychotherapy and Counseling Christiane Brems, Christina H. Rasmussen, 2018-08-08 Christiane Brems in collaboration with new coauthor Christina Rasmussen introduces prospective and practicing clinicians to theories and principles of applied clinical work with children ages three to twelve years The authors take an integrated approach to understanding children and their families using a biopsychosociocultural model for conceptualization and treatment planning Their methods are practical and compassionate as well as contextually grounded and individually tailored Chapters follow the logical development of clinicians mirroring the natural flow of work with children Coverage ranges from the importance of a beginning practitioner s introspection and of ethical and legal issues to a variety of intervention techniques and strategies and finally termination Case studies showcase individualized and mindful treatment for each child with whom a clinician works Outstanding Features of the Fourth Edition Essential attention to how clinicians self awareness can lead to positive therapeutic relationships with children and their families Thorough discussions of the biopsychosociocultural model for conceptualization and treatment planning Emphasis on intensive assessment prior to treatment planning to address the needs of each child and family A compelling practical exploration of mindfulness intervention with children The authors methodology addresses the profound effects of the larger environment and culture on children By adopting the authors integrated approach clinicians are better able to understand important and complicated aspects of a child s and family s life From there compassionate thoughtful and relevant intervention ensues
