Questions For November 2014 A Level History Zimsec:

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson Ncube, 2021-11-04 This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa s 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017 he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures This multi and inter disciplinary volume looks to the social media language discourse theatre images political speeches and literary fiction and non fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval The book argues that themes of self renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe s tenure the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of postcolonial social economic and political changes Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies Build Mark Katz, 2020 Build The Power of Hip Hop Diplomacy in a Divided World explores the inescapable tensions and ambiguities in the relationship between art and the state revealing the ethical complexities that lurk behind what might seem mere goodwill diplomatic tours Author Mark Katz makes the case that hip hop can be a valuable positive and effective means to promote meaningful and productive international relations between people and nations An Economic History of Development in sub-Saharan Africa Ellen Hillbom, Erik Green, 2019-06-19 This is a desperately needed book It not only surveys the field of African economic history at the level of undergraduate students but provides several fresh perspectives drawing on insights from the latest research on the evolution of African societies and their economic prosperity This valuable source of teaching material will be the premier text on African economic history for at least the next decade Johan Fourie Stellenbosch University South Africa This upper level textbook offers a historical understanding of sub Saharan Africa By looking at the economic history of the African region from before the arrival of European territorial control all the way through to Africa s integration in the current era of globalisation readers can understand the development paths for African countries today Organisation of production social structures trade and governance are key factors in the discussion about African success stories and failures Suitable reading for upper level undergraduates MSc and postgraduate students in addition to policy makers and development practitioners looking for a comprehensive overview of Africa from an economic and social perspective Hillbom and Green also provide a starting point for the study of African economic history for those who would like to continue their own research in this area

Statistical Tragedy in Africa? Morten Jerven, Deborah Johnston, 2017-10-02 What do we know about economic development in Africa The answer is that we know much less than we would like to think This collection assesses the knowledge problem present in statistics on poverty agriculture labour education health and economic growth While diverse in origin the contributors to this book are unified in two conclusions the quality and quantity of data needs to be improved and this is a concern not just for statisticians Weaknesses in statistical methodology and practice can misinform policy makers international agencies donors the private sector and the citizens of African countries themselves This is also a problem for academics from various disciplines from history and economics to social epidemiology and education policy Not only does academic work on Africa regularly use flawed data but many problems encountered in surveys challenge common academic abstractions By exploring these flaws this book will provide a guide for scholars policy makers and all those using and commissioning surveys in Africa This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Development Studies

New Millennium Woes and Livelihood Struggles in Africa Peter Thomas, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2021-05-19 One of the oldest survival pursuits undertaken by the weak and the downtrodden people across the world has been begging Going back to the ancient Christian biblical times up to the present epoch as well as across varying spatial settings in situations of trouble and tribulations parts of various communities have resorted to beggary to either overcome immediate adversities or longer term calamities Drawing on insights from two polar theoretical lenses of Social Constructionism and Social Deconstructionism and guided by a pithy study of the begging across the African continent especially by Zimbabweans this book troubles the various contours related to the subject of begging Inter alia the book considers the concept of begging the causes of the prevalence of begging across the world and particularly among Zimbabweans the challenges and benefits associated with the pursuit of alms the impact of begging in foreign lands as well as some of the strategies that beggars employ to maximize their collections and or profits What can be discerned from the book is that for many begging is one of the last resort undertakings with low pickings However from a utilitarian perspective begging has helped to sustain the impoverished livelihoods of Zimbabweans both inside and outside the borders of the country since the advent of a debilitating crisis experienced from the turn of the new millennium On the whole this book seeks to provoke further researches on an important socio economic area that affects many African communities but has so far been scantily researched The book is handy for students and practitioners in economic history African studies economics risk and disaster management social anthropology political science and development studies

Disaster Studies Janki Andharia,2020-03-25 This book covers several dimensions of disaster studies as an emerging discipline It is the inaugural book in the series Disaster Studies and Management and deals with questions such as Is disaster management a field of practice a profession or simply a new area of study Exploring intersectionalities the book also examines areas of research that could help enhance the discourse on disaster management from policy and practice perspectives revisiting conventional event centric approaches which are the basis for most writings on the subject Several case studies and comparative analyses reflect a critical reading of research and practice concerning disasters and their management The book offers valuable insights into various subjects including the challenge of establishing inter and multi disciplinary teams within the academia involved in disaster studies and sociological and anthropological readings of post disaster memoryscapes Each of the contributors has an enduring interest in disaster studies thus enriching the book immensely This book will be of interest to all the students and scholars of disaster studies and disaster management as well as to practitioners and policymakers

Ecopsychology Darlyne G. Nemeth,Robert B. Hamilton,Judy Kuriansky,2015-09-09 This anthology is a two volume work that focuses on our relationship with the Earth and our future examining the crossover between psychology and environmental studies in the emerging fields of ecopsychology and environmental psychology This set offers the first comprehensive and holistic understanding of how our human activities are very rapidly changing the earth s environment and harming its inhabitants Since our present path of population growth and use of finite global resources is unsustainable we must find new ways to protect our environment and our future Offering unique perspectives and guidance toward holistic new solutions this reader friendly anthology serves a vast audience in the fields of psychology and environmental studies as well as scientists humanitarians educators and policymakers This work presents readers with the latest research on psychology and the environment gives examples from around the world applies to programs for youth and adults and appeals to all stakeholders including those in public health policy environmental studies and more The reader will gain the perspective and understanding of policies needed to effect environmental change and holistically manage the direction of that change

Macroeconomics R. Glenn Hubbard,Anne M. Garnett,Philip Lewis,Anthony Patrick O'Brien,2014-09-01 Macroeconomics is the most engaging introductory economics resource available to students today Using real businesses examples to show how managers use economics to make real decisions every day the subject is made relevant and meaningful Each chapter of the text opens with a case study featuring a real business or real business situation refers to the study throughout the chapter and concludes with An Inside Look a news article format which illustrates how a key principle covered in the chapter relates to real business situations or was used by a real company to make a real business decision Solved problems in every chapter motivate learners to confidently connect with the theory to solve economic problems and analyse current economic events The Wealth of (Some) Nations Zak Cope, 2019-03-20 In this provocative new study Zak Cope makes the case that capitalism is empirically inseparable from imperialism historically and today Using a rigorous political economic framework he lays bare the vast ongoing transfer of wealth from the poorest to the richest countries through the mechanisms of monopoly rent unequal exchange and colonial tribute The result is a polarised international class structure with a relatively rich Global North and an impoverished exploited Global South Cope makes the controversial claim that it is because of these conditions that workers in rich countries benefit from higher incomes and welfare systems with public health education pensions and social security As a result the internationalism of populations in the Global North is weakened and transnational solidarity is compromised The only way forward Cope argues is through a renewed anti imperialist politics rooted in a firm commitment to a radical labour internationalism
