War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts, Fredline A. M'Cormack-Hale, 2022-01-13 Since the 1991 2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women s involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment This is in marked contrast to other post conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women's rights. Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines, this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women's political, economic and social development in the country. In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education, refugees to international donors, the contradictions, successes and challenges of women's lives in a post-conflict environment are revealed, making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development.

Community Participation in School Management Kazuro Shibuya, 2022-09-12. Nobody denies that trust in schools is key to success in generating any educational outcomes. However, trust is often eroded, resulting in conflicts, alienation and differentiation among school-level stakeholders. This book analyses school-based management (SBM) of education through the lens of relational trust in the context of Ghana, revealing how community participation in school management leads to educational outcomes. Conducting quantitative analysis of headteacher questionnaires from public basic schools and qualitative analysis of case study schools in the Akatsi South District of Ghana, Shibuya offers critical insights into building sustainable relationships between individual households and geographical school communities. He argues it is critical to highlight relational trust as an analytical tool to examine relationships between actors and factors in school management. The research finds that trust in schools is a two-way mechanism and the mutuality of expectations and obligations among stakeholders is essential if children's learning outcomes are to improve. With its mixed methods approach, this book will be a valuable resource for scholars in comparative education, those in educational development and those interested in African contexts. Daily Graphic, Kingsley Inkoom, 2014-09-04.

Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E. Bennett, Linda Darling-Hammond, Aneesha Badrinarayan, 2025-05-01. Socioculturally Responsive Assessment assembles the best available thinking from within and outside the educational measurement community about the theoretical foundations and systems-level policy implications of formal assessment programs designed to be socioculturally responsive. Synthesized from culturally responsive assessment design and practices, culturally relevant pedagogy and funds of knowledge, universal design for learning, the learning sciences and other literatures, this emerging concept affirms that students' learning and performance is inextricably tied to the social, cultural and linguistic contexts in which they live and develop knowledge. Across four sections, this book provides an argument and initial evidence for impact on students, users and assessment quality, offers guidance for implementation and examines the potential limitations, pitfalls, barriers and measurement issues that such programs will inevitably raise. Scholars, teaching faculty, test developers and policymakers will come away with integral foundations, new assessment approaches and a greater sense of the potential for positive impact that these assessments may afford. Creativity and Innovation in Times of Crisis (COVID-19) Roni Reiter-Palmon, Min Tang, Zorana Ivcevic, 2022-04-06.
