Bridget Riley: The Stripe Paintings 1961-2014 Bridget Riley, 2014-10-31 Published on the occasion of Bridget Riley's major exhibition at David Zwirner in London in the summer of 2014 this fully illustrated catalogue offers intimate explorations of paintings and works on paper produced by the legendary British artist over the past fifty years focusing specifically on her recurrent use of the stripe motif Riley has devoted her practice to actively engaging viewers through elementary shapes such as lines circles curves and squares creating visual experiences that at times trigger optical sensations of vibration and movement The London show her most extensive presentation in the city since her 2003 retrospective at Tate Britain explored the stunning visual variety she has managed to achieve working exclusively with stripes manipulating the surfaces of her vibrant canvases through subtle changes in hue weight rhythm and density As noted by Paul Moorhouse Throughout her development Riley has drawn confirmation from Eugene Delacroix's observation that the first merit of a painting is to be a feast for the eyes Her most recent stripe paintings are a striking reaffirmation of that principle exciting and entrancing the eye in equal measure Created in close collaboration with the artist the publication's beautifully produced color plates offer a selection of the iconic works from the exhibition These include the artist's first stripe works in color from the 1960s a series of vertical compositions from the 1980s that demonstrate her so called Egyptian palette a narrow chromatic range that recalled natural phenomena and an array of her modestly scaled studies executed with gouache on graph paper and rarely before seen A range of texts about Riley's original and enduring practice grounds and contextualizes the images including new scholarship by art historian Richard Shiff texts on both the artist's wall paintings and newest body of work by Paul Moorhouse 20th Century Curator at the National Portrait Gallery in London and a 1978 interview with Robert Kudielka her longtime confidant and foremost critic Additionally the book features little seen archival imagery of Riley at work over the years documentation of her recent commissions for St Mary's Hospital in West London taken especially for this publication and installation views of the exhibition itself installed throughout the three floors of the gallery's eighteenth century Georgian townhouse located in the heart of Mayfair

Subversion 2.0 Christopher Whyte, 2024 Why are conspiracy theories extremist rhetoric and acts of antagonism by fringe elements of society so much more visible today than in years past In Subversion 2.0 Christopher Whyte makes the case that leaderlessness characterized by an evolving and uneven feedback loop linking fringe spaces to mainstream elite rhetoric and popular discourse has emerged as the default format of subversive activity in the digital age By examining the uneven feedback loop of leaderlessness Whyte argues that social Internet platforms act as a vehicle for transmitting and amplifying extreme rhetoric but often fail to moderate extremism in turn
