Reflections On Fieldwork In Morocco A Quantum Book:

Reflections on Fieldwork in Morocco Paul Rabinow, 2007-05 In this landmark study now celebrating thirty years in print Paul Rabinow takes as his focus the fieldwork that anthropologists do How valid is the process To what extent do the cultural data become artifacts of the interaction between anthropologist and informants Having first published a more standard ethnographic study about Morocco Rabinow here describes a series of encounters with his informants in that study from a French innkeeper clinging to the vestiges of a colonial past to the rural descendants of a seventeenth century saint In a new preface Rabinow considers the thirty year life of this remarkable book and his own distinguished career Reflections on Fieldwork in Morocco Paul Rabinow, 1977 Rarely have anthropologists regarded fieldwork as a serious object of study although it is tacitly accepted as their major activity How valid is the process To what extent are the cultural data an artifact of the interaction between anthropologist and informants Rabinow takes the view that fieldwork is an independent cultural activity valuable in its own right and worthy of narrative report The Art of Fieldwork Harry F. Wolcott, 2005 In this long anticipated second edition of The Art of Fieldwork prominent anthropologist Harry F Wolcott updates his original groundbreaking text which both challenges and petitions anthropology and its practitioners to draw not only on the traditional precepts of science but also on the richness of artistry in the collection interpretation and expression of fieldwork data Each of the original chapters have been thoughtfully revised to reflect the past nine years of anthropological development Combined with a new final chapter this refreshing text makes an exciting reentry into the ongoing debate of the processes challenges and rewards of fieldwork methodology Researchers in qualitative methods and field methods_ and fieldworkers across disciplines _will find this well crafted approachable book a thought provoking read The Ghosts of Empire Samuel Veissière, 2011 Set against the background of nighttime encounters in the rough streets of Brazil's Salvador da Bahia this experimental ethnography explores how certain transnational characters are at once co constructed and reinvented through the legacy of conquest and the global inequalities of late capitalism Theorizing the desires that drive these encounters as forms of colonial violence and sincere emancipatory strategies author Samuel Veissiere's gaze travels outward across the Atlantic and the historical violence of empire and then turns back inward to revisit the violence of his own white colonial desires Series Contributions to Transnational Feminism Vol 3 Anthropologists in a Wider World Paul Dresch, Wendy James, David J. Parkin, 2000 A dozen papers reflect the newer perspective of studying historical patterns wider regions and global networks beyond traditional anthropological fieldwork New wave scholars reflect on their field and desk experiences and may let the field come to them e g an ethnomusicologist studies the fieldwork of others and observes non Western performances in a British museum Includes bandw photos of authors studies and a substantial bibliography The editors and contributors are from the U of Oxford where the social and cultural anthropology department held a 1997 seminar on the teaching of methods on which this volume is based Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Clifford Geertz in Morocco Susan Slyomovics, 2013-09-13 Between 1963 and 1986 eminent American anthropologists Clifford and Hildred Geertz together and alone conducted ethnographic fieldwork for varying periods in Sefrou a town situated in north central Morocco south of Fez This book considers Geertz's contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology Clifford Geertz made an immense impact on the American academy his interpretative and symbolic approaches reoriented anthropology analytically away from classic social science presuppositions while his publications profoundly influenced both North American and Maghribi researchers alike After his death at the age of 80 on October 30 2006 scholars from local national and international universities gathered at the University of California Los Angeles to analyze his contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology in relation to Islam ideas of the sacred Morocco's cityscapes notably Sefrou's bazaar or suq colonialism and post independence economic development gender and political structures at the household and village levels This book looks back to a specific era of American anthropology beginning in the 1960s as it unfolded in Morocco and at the same time the contributions examine new lines of enquiry that opened up after key texts by Geertz were translated into French and introduced to generations of francophone Maghribi researchers who sustain lively and inventive meditations on his Morocco writings This book was published as a special issue of Journal of North African Studies

North Africa and the Making of Europe Muriam Haleh Davis, Thomas Serres, 2018-02-22 This innovative edited collection brings together leading scholars from the USA the UK and mainland Europe to examine how European identity and institutions have been fashioned through interactions with the southern periphery since 1945 It highlights the role played by North African actors in shaping European conceptions of governance culture and development considering the construction of Europe as an ideological and politico economic entity in the process Split up into three sections that investigate the influence of colonialism on the shaping of post WWII Europe the nature of co operation dependence and interdependence in the region and the impact of the Arab Spring North Africa and the Making of Europe investigates the Mediterranean space using a transnational interdisciplinary approach This in turn allows for historical analysis to be fruitfully put into conversation with contemporary politics The book also discusses such timely issues such as the development of European institutions the evolution of legal frameworks in the name of antiterrorism the rise of Islamophobia immigration and political co operation Students and scholars focusing on the development of postwar Europe or the EU's current relationship with North Africa will benefit immensely from this invaluable new study

The Shadow Side of Fieldwork Athena McLean, Annette Leibing, 2008-04-15 The Shadow Side of Fieldwork draws attention to the typically hidden or unacknowledged aspects of ethnographic fieldwork encounters that nevertheless shape the resulting knowledge and texts Addressing these invisible elusive unspoken or mysterious elements introduces a distinctive rigor and responsibility to ethnographic research Luminaries in anthropology dare to explore the unspeakable and invisible in the ethnographic encounter Considers personal and professional challenges ethical epistemological and political faced by researchers who examine the subjectivities inherent in their ethnographic insights Explores the value and limitations of addressing the personal in ethnographic research Includes a critical discussion of the anthropologist s self in the field Introduces imaginative rigor to ethnographic research to heighten confidence in anthropological knowledge Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille,Stephanie Corigliano,2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue Only Hope Vanessa L. Fong,2004 This is the first book to examine the high pressure lives of teenagers born under China s one child family policy Based on a survey of 2 273 students and 27 months of participant observation in Chinese homes and schools it explores the social economic and psychological consequences of the one child policy Irving's Dialogism in the Alhambra Mohamed Dellal,2024-12-06 Cross culture and or multiculturalism have become catchwords and phrases in certain studies within academia but they have mostly become battle grounds for contestation and convergence with contestation of identity cultural authenticity and or supremacy and hegemony Yet over and above all these skirmishes convergence tends to win the day as it struggles for a cosmopolitan culture and polity albeit very difficult to achieve The present work follows the same line of thought by trying to bring a new perspective into what it calls cultural dialogism inherent in the corpus of texts borrowed from The Alhambra by W Irving The texts selected display a dual characteristic the first is addressed as organic in the sense that the texts reflect some eight hundred years of natural copulation between Muslim culture brought up by Muslim conquerors to the Andalusian Christendom the second underlines a volition on the part of the author to merge the culture by intruding into the structures of the language and the texts The present works intends to show that these characteristic hybridities transgress the generic boundaries as well as the cultural one producing a brassage breaking the fixity of the boundaries cultural and other causing brisures and sutures This endows the texts with a certain liminality that makes it difficult to authenticate them as belonging to either culture Rethinking Women's Roles Denise O'Brien,Sharon W. Tiffany,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 Capricious Worlds John Chr Knudsen,2005

Capricious Worlds covers a period of 20 years of exile Through the life journeys of Vietnamese refugees the book presents a world rich in experience and wisdom where the will to survive is complemented by the skills to do so Individuals must learn to conquer systems that transform human beings into numbers and men women and children into de personalized figures The transformations render an unsettling peace that refugees struggle against inspired by a search for recognition a search not only for what is lost but also for what might yet be The book is about refugees en route to and in Norway It also speaks to the challenges of being exiled in general a reality for 40 million refugees and internally displaced persons worldwide

Researching Memory and Identity in Russia and Eastern Europe Jade McGlynn, Oliver T. Jones, 2022-10-06 This book offers a collection of innovative methodological approaches to Memory Studies in Russia and Eastern Europe Providing insights into the relationship between memory and identity the twelve chapters provide multidisciplinary analysis of how history is used to reinforce remould and reinvent national and group identities This analysis includes a strong emphasis on interrogating the role of the researcher and the impact of methodology exploring the field s most pressing challenges such as the subjectivity of remembrance reception versus production of discourse and the inclusion of marginal perspectives By focussing on countries in which the past is highly politicised including Serbia Ukraine Poland Russia and the Baltic States the volume also analyses the diverse and often conflicting ways in which historical narratives emerge from these states efforts to create new pasts that shape their respective visions of the future with pressing ramifications across this region and beyond

Psychotherapy, Anthropology and the Work of Culture Keir Martin, 2019-03-13 Anthropology and psychotherapy have a long and important historical relationship and in this fascinating collection practitioners with experience in both fields explore how the concept of culture is deployed to guide and frame contemporary therapeutic theory training and practice This task is particularly important as the global spread of psychotherapy as both an outgrowth of and a potential point of critique to globalised hyper capitalism requires us to think differently about how to conceptualise cultural difference in psychotherapy Psychotherapy Anthropology and the Work of Culture provides a valuable resource for psychotherapeutic professionals working in a world in which cultural difference appears in fluid and transient moments It will also provide essential reading for students and researchers working across the fields of psychotherapy and anthropology

Art Therapy in Australia Andrea J. Gilroy, Sheridan Linnell, Tarquam McKenna, Jill Westwood, 2019-01-28 Art Therapy in Australia Taking a Postcolonial Aesthetic Turn explores and enacts established and emergent art therapy histories narratives and practices in the specific postcolonial context of contemporary Australia It is the first published book to attempt to map this terrain In doing so the book aims to document important aspects of art therapy in Australia including how Australian approaches both reiterate and challenge the dominant discourse of art therapy This book is as much a performance as an account of the potential of art therapy to honour alterity illuminate possibilities and bear witness to the intrapsychic relational and social realms The book offers a selective window into the rambling assemblage that is art therapy in the Great Southern Land
